NOTE READ TO CABINET, SANCTIONED AND WILL BE SENT GERMANY SOON

Library of Congress WASHINGTON D. C.

Comparatively Brief Communication is Insistent and Emphatic

WHAT IS CALLED FOR

Must Adhere to Principles of International Law in Maritime War.

Note Will be Cabled Not Later Than Monday.

Washington, June 4.—President Wilson read to his cabinet today the draft of a note to be sent to Germany, demanding, in effect, adherence to the humane principles of international law in the German government's conduct of maritime warfare as affecting neutrals. Comparatively brief, but described as insistent and emphatic, the communication will be cabled not later than Monday.

The cabinet approved the note as a whole. Minor changes in phraseology may be made to make it conform with previous expressions in diplomatic correspondence of the United States. The principle is fixed and unalterable—that the United States must know definitely and promptly whether Germany intends to ignore visit and search rights and continue torpedoing vessels without warning, or whether rules of maritime warfare which have governed for centuries will be followed.

The alternative course is not stated, but it is generally known that the United States in the event of an unfavorable reply will discontinue diplomatic relations with Germany.

The note set aside as irrelevant all questions of the German reply except one—whether the Lusitania was armed —and re-states the position taken by the United States previously that the Lusitania, after official investigation by competent inspectors, sailed from an American port with no guns aboard. It further calls Germany's attention to the fact that the Lusitania did not attempt resistance, but was torpedoed without warning.

Regrets Are Expressed.

The arrival of a communication from the German government today expressing regret for the attack on the American steamer Gulflight, offering to pay indemnity as soon as a claim is presented, and details arranged, and making a further promise to take into consideration any facts which the United States may have on the dropping of bombs by German airmen upon the American steamer Cushing, made unnecessary any discussion of these cases in the new note to Germany.

Secretary Bryan conferred with President Wilson before the cabinet meeting began. Counsellor Robert Lansing, who had prepared some of the memoranda on which the new note is based, was invited by the President to sit at the cabinet table and advise on points of international law.

The meeting lasted two hours and at its conclusion all the members, it was said, had agreed to the principle set forth in the note. It was stated that the sending to Emperor William by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, of Meyer Gerhardt, an attache of the German colonial office, as special envoy to carry messages from the embassy and to outline the American point of view would not delay the dispatch of the note.

In German quarters here, it is expected that the German reply will be withheld until Mr. Gerhardt has arrived and explained the situation. This, it is estimated, will take at least a fortnight as the boat on which the envoy sailed would not bring him to Denmark much sooner.

While there was a general reticence to discuss the contents of the new note, the impression prevailed in official quarters that the document was emphatic, particularly in that it does not invite discussion on any of the points raised by Germany. The communication, it was said, simply calls attention to the American note of May 13 that the Lusitania was unarmed and expresses the view that the Imperial government must have been uninformed on this phase of the case.

EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE AT RALEIGH IS CONCLUDED

Most Successful of the Five Held by Carolina Dioceses.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—The St. Mary's school conference of clergy and laity of the dioceses of North and South Carolina, in progress all the week here, closed tonight the fifth annual conference, which has proven far and away the most successful in the history of this movement. The attendance reached nearly four hundred and the addresses and special features were of an especially high order, dealing with every phase of church and Sunday school work as it appeals to both clergy and laity. The social side of the conference has been very delightful also, the work and play being remarkably well blended. Dr. George W. Lay, rector of St. Mary's school, is the "live wire" back of this successful conference movement.

Geneva, (via Paris), June 5.—Reports from Pola, the Austrian naval base, confirms previous assertions that a large part of the towns and the docks and naptha reservoir, which were fired during the recent Italian aerial attack were destroyed.

Wilson Liner Iona for Montreal from Middlesborough With Freight Sunk by German Submarine Off England.

Kirkwall, June 4.—The crews of two vessels which are declared to have been torpedoed by German submarines were landed here today—53 men belonging to the Wilson Line steamer Iona bound from Middlesbrough for Montreal, and nine from the Aberdeen fishing steamer Chrysophrasus.

The Iona was sunk 24 miles south of Fair Isle, Scotland, being torpedoed after her crew had left her. The Chrysophrasus was sent to the bottom about 45 miles off Stronsay, one of the Orkney Island. In each case it is alleged that submarines shelled the boats as life boats were being launched. Two of the Iona's crew were seriously and two slightly wounded.

MONTREAL GETS NEWS.

Montreal, June 4.—The Wilson liner Iona for Montreal with freight from Middleborough, Eng., and carrying no passengers, was torpedoed and sunk off the north coast of England at noon yesterday according to a report received by agents of the line here tonight. The captain and crew were landed at Kirkwall, Scotland.

The Iona sailed from Middleborough June 2nd for Montreal. Shipping records list her as a steamer of 2,885 tons.

LARGE STEAMER SUNK.

Inkum, British, from New York for London, Sent to Bottom.

Falmouth, June 4.—The British steamer Inkum, from New York to London, was torpedoed at 4:30 o'clock this morning 43 miles southwest of Lizard Head. The crew was landed here by the Norwegian steamer Wendla.

No submarine had been observed when a terrific explosion shook the vessel which began to settle.

The crew took to the boats but the steamer settled so slowly that some of them returned to the ship, hoping tot save her. They noticed, however, the periscope of a submarine which discharged a second torpedo, completing the work of destruction.

The Inkum left New York on May 22 for London. She was 302½ feet long and of 3,074 tons net. She was built at Glasgow in 1901 and was owned by the Gulf Transport Line, of Liverpool.

EXTEND EVERY AID TO THE RED CROSS

In Sending Food to Starving Civilians in Mexico.

REPORTS CALLED FOR

Consuls and Consul Agents Throughout Mexico Ordered to Report on Conditions in Their Territory—Army Forces Aid Red Cross.

Washington, June 4.—American consuls and consular agents throughout Mexico were instructed by telegraph today to send to the State Department immediately full reports on conditions in territory under their observation. These representatives will facilitate the work of the American Red Cross in relieving Mexico's starving civilian population and at the same time aid the government in developing the next step in its policy toward the contending military elements.

Steps already taken by Red Cross officials were approved at a meeting of the executive committee of the society today and it was decided to send S. P. Morris, acting national director, to Mexico City to direct relief work there and as far as possible to supervise the society's activities in Central Mexico. According to present plans, Morris will sail from New York for Vera Cruz Thursday.

Work on the border will be directed by Brigadier General Devol, general manager of the Red Cross, who expects to leave for Texas, in a day or two.

Will Aid Red Cross.

Secreary Garrison today ordered that army warehouses with their facilities for loading and unloading be placed at the disposal of Red Cross agents who are assembling food sent to the border for transportation into the interior of Mexico.

Reports from Mexico City today told of the movement of Americans and other foreigners from the capital by horseback and automobile to points where they could take trains for Vera Cruz. So far the Brazilian minister has not arranged for the proposed special train to take 150 or more Americans to the east court.

Details of fighting around Silao, whence Villa drove a part of Obregon's forces Wednesday, continued to reach the Villa agency during the day. It is believed that a decisive engagement probably is being fought now.

CARRANZA WILL ANSWER

Appreciative, Friendly and Serene Will Be Tone of His Reply.

Vera Cruz, June 4.—Appreciative, friendly and serene—such will be the tone of General Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note. After carefully considering the note, General Carranza concluded that it contains nothing other than hopeful necessities for the Constitutionalists' cause, and it was officially announced today that his reply to President Wilson would be handed to John R. Durham, N. C., June 4.—Florence, South Carolina, was selected as the next meeting place of the Grand Lodge of the United Commercial Travelers at the session tonight. The following officers, elected in the afternoon, were installed this evening: H. R. Barrow, Spartanburg, S. C., grand counsellor; J. B. Call, Asheville, grand junior counsellor; E. A. Hughes, Durham, grand past counsellor; Thomas H. Pope, Greenville, S. C., grand conductor; L. H. Burnette, Wilmington, grand page; M. A. Whismont, Florence, grand sentinel; S. T. Reid, Spartanburg, grand secretary; N. V. Porter, Charlotte, grand treasurer. Representatives to the Supreme Council, A. E. Hughes, C. C. Taylor, J. E. Gentry; alternates, Jim McConneley, Statesville; C. H. Jones, Columbia; J. H. Simpkin, Spartanburg.

Practically all of the business of the session was completed at the meeting tonight. No matters of special importance came before the Grand Council this year. The reports from the various parts of North and South Carolina show that there has been a steady growth of the order in these two States during the past year. The order is now on a fine footing, and new councils are being added as the growth of the membership demands.

Tomorrow will be devoted to a good time after the memorial service which will be held in the morning. This service will be held in the lodge room of the Odd Fellows, where the sessions of the Grand Council have been held. After that time, the traveling men will meet for a group photograph, then will hold the street parade. At noon they will have dinner at the Park and take in the baseball game later in the afternoon.

GERMANY OFFERS REGRETS BECAUSE GULFLIGHT SUNK

Note Received at State Department Through Ambassador Gerard.

MAKE FULL RECOMPENSE

Characterized as "Unfortunate Accident"—Ask Details as to Cushing.

Washington, June 4.—Germany, in a note cabled to the State department today by Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, expressed regrets that through "an unfortunate accident" a German submarine had torpedoed the American steamer Gulflight and declared itself "ready to furnish full recompense for the damage thereby sustained by American citizens."

In the same communication the German foreign office said it had not been possible to clear up fully the case of the American steamer Cushing, reported attacked by a German aeroplane, and asked that the United States communicate all information in its possession concerning this incident.

Blame for the attack on the Gulflight was placed by the foreign office upon the proximity of two British patrol boats and the absence from the steamer's freeboard of the distinctive markings usually carried by neutral ships.

"That the attacked steamer carried the American flag, "the note added, "was first observed at the moment of firing the shot."

The Gulflight was torpedoed in the English channel five weeks ago while carrying oil from Port Arthur, Texas, for Rouan, France. She was towed to Crow's Sound and beached for repairs. Two seamen were drowned when the crew took to the boats and the captain died of heart trouble the next day.

The expression of regrets and offer of reparation follows the principle outlined in a circular from Germany disclaiming intention of attacking neutral vessels carrying non-contraband.

Text of the Note.

The text of the note, signed by the minister of foreign affairs, reads:

"Referring to the note of May 28, the undersigned has the honor to inform his excellency the ambassador of the United States of America, Mr. James W. Gerard, that the examination undertaken on the part of the German government concerning the American steamers Gulflight and Cushing has led to the following conclusions:

steamer Gulflight the commander of

"In regard to the attack on the a German submarine saw on the afternoon of May 1 in the vicinity of the Scilly Islands a large merchant steamer coming in his direction which was accompanied by two smaller vessels. These latter took such position in relation to the steamer that they formed a regulation safeguard against submarines; moreover, one of them had a wireless apparatus which it not usual with small vessels.

From this it evidently was a case of English convoy vessels. Since such vessels are regularly armed, the submarine could not approach the steamer on the surface of the water without running the danger of destruction. It was, on the other hand, to be assumed that the steamer was of considerable value to the British government since it was so guarded. The commander could see no neutral markings on it of any kind, that is, distinctive marks painted on the free board recognizable at a distance such as are now usual on neutral ships in the English zone of naval warfare. In consequence he arrived at the conclusion from all the circumstances, that he had to deal with an English steamer, submerged and attacked. The torpedo came in the immediate neighborhood of one of the convoy ships which at once rapidly approached the point of firing so that the submarine was forced to go to a great depth to avoid being rammed, the conclusion of the commander that an English convoy ship was concerned was in this way confirmed.

Flag Observed Too Late.

"That the attacked steamer carried the American flag was first observed at the moment of firing the shot.

"The fact that the steamship was pursuing a course which led neither to nor from America was further reason why it did not occur to the commander of the submarine that he was dealing with an American steamer.

"Upon scrutiny of the time and place of the occurrence described, the German government has become convinced that the attacked ship was actually the American steamship Gulflight. There can be no doubt, according to the attendant circumstances, that the attack to be attributed to an unfortunate accident and not to the fault of the commander.

"The German government expresses its regrets to the government of the United States concerning this incident and declares itself ready to furnish full recompense for the damage thereby sustained by American citizens. It is left to the discretion of the American government to present a statement of this demonstration or doubts may arise over individual points, to designate an expert who would have to determine together with a German expert the amount of the damage.

"It has not yet been possible by means of an inquiry to clear up fully the case of the American ship Cushing. Official reports available report only one merchant steamship attacked by a German flying machine in the vicinity of Nordhind lightship. The German aviator was forced to consider the vessel as hostile because it carried no flag and further because of no recog-

AIRSHIP TO PLAY IMPORTANT PART

Will Become as Deadly as Submarine, Says Daniels.

IN ADDRESSING CADETS

Secretary of the Navy Declares That Last Congress Endorsed Upbuilding of the Submarine Wing of Navy—Twenty-Six Building.

Annapolis, Md., June 4.—Prediction that war aircraft of the not distant future will be as fearful engines of destruction as the dreaded submarines, was made by Secretary Daniels in addressing the graduating class of the Naval Academy today.

"In the European war," he said, "there have been no surprises, no startling victories, no crushing defeats that could be called decisive. Slaughter there has been unprecedented, but the character of battles that stampeded an enemy by taking him unawares has passed away.

"The effectiveness of the flanking movement has been seriously impaired. Why? The soaring scouts carry messages from trench to trench and the sudden alarms that resulted in the routing of mighty armies became ancient history when the modern engine and gasoline enabled man to conquer the relgions of the air.

"What we have seen in these swift-winged, eagle eyes of the army or navy is but the dawn of the coming day when we shall make the heavens carry our war craft as easily as we navigate the sea with our dreadnoughts."

Speaks of Submarine.

Secretary Daniels spoke of the marvelous development of the submarine, and added:

"Almost daily you are startled to read of the torpedoing of a mighty vessel by these small under-sea tilletoes. The submarine's precision of aim, its deadliness of execution, its ability to do its deadly work and disappear in a moment challenge the world's wonder.

"It seems only a few days ago that we were wondering if the submarine would become a really important part of the fleet. Today many are seriously debating whether our giant craft will continue to be the backbone of the squadrons that constitute a country's protection.

"The last Congress expressed its faith in the submarine by voting the money to build 25 new submarines, three of them to be sea-going, of a size and power never before contemplated. What of the future of this newest naval arm? He would be a rash man who would in prophecy limit its possibilities."

Secretary Daniels drew a lesson from the European war in pointing out that the graduates, in order to attain high place of honor must possess, in addition to other indispensables, self-mastery.

Daniels Investigates.

Secretary Daniels conducted a personal investigation today of charges against seven midshipmen in connection with the alleged use of advance

I. C. C. IS PROBING ROCK ISLAND DEAL

How Road Sent Into Hands of Receiver is Explained

DIRECTORS ARE HEARD

Interstate Commerce Commission Resumes Investigation Into Financial Conditions of Road—Details Brought Out.

Washington, June 4.—How the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company was sent into the hands of receivers six weeks ago was described today when the Interstate Commerce Commission resumed its investigation of the road's financial troubles.

Roberts Walker, of counsel for the Rock Island, declared he prepared the Federal court petition asking for receivers and also framed the company's answer consenting to receivership without formal action by the board of directors. He said a receivership was the only way in which the property could be maintained.

Two directors, Arthur Curtis James, of the Phelps-Dodge interests and Ogden Mills, were examined by the comission.

James said the first he knew of the proposed receivership was on April 19, the day before the receiver was appointed. On that day, he said, Director Schumacher came to his office and reported he had by accident learned that the Rock Island offices that an application was to be made for a receivership. The witness told of a conference participated in by himself, Schumacher, W. Emlin Roosevelt, and other directors to consider the course to pursue, at which, after agreeing that a receivership was inevitable they decided not to oppose the move.

James said he had assisted the road in borrowing $1,500,000 on March 31, so as to tide the situation over until new directors were elected, hoping that they might carry the company along. Ogden Mills told of selling 6,000 of his 10,000 shares of Rock Island ofr $36 a share on April 16, four days before the receivers were appointed.

"Artificial conditions in the market, created in a perfectly crazy way, showed somebody was pushing the market up," he said, "and I felt entitled to take advanage of it."

"Didn't you know papers had been prepared for a receiver?" inquired Chief Counsel Folk for the commission.

"I didn't know any papers had been prepared for the appointment, but anybody with any intelligence knew that conditions had not improved," the witness answered. "Every financial institution in New York knew of the obligations comigg due and the condition the company was in."

"You sold your stock to escape," suggested Untermyer.

"I sold because the stock was too high," said Mills.

Washington, June 4.—Complaint against freight rates on fruit and vegetables from Eastern Virginia to Northern and Western points was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the Eastern Shore of Virginia Produce Exchange.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY CUTS BIG RED MELON

Declares Stock Dividend of $48,000,000 Payable Soon

Authorized Capital Stock of the Company Increased from $2,000,000 to $100,000,000—Dividend Payable July First.

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—The Ford Motor Company announced today that it had increased its authorized capital stock from $2,000,000 to $100,000,000 and had declared a stock dividend of $48,000,000 payable July 1.

A cash dividend was declared on the original authorized stock of $2,000,000 but the amount was not made public. The stock dividend increases the holdings of Henry Ford, president of the company, by $27,840,000. James Couzens, vice president, receives $5,000,000.

The stock increase brings the issued capital stock of the concern to a valuation of $50,000,000. The remaining $50,000,000 will be kept in the company's treasury "to be used as conditions demand in the future."

Teutons Again Turn Attention to Situation in France and Belgium.

AND HAVE MADE GAINS

Slight Advantage Over French and British in Preliminary Fighting.

Little Change in Situation on Italian Front.

London, June 4.—With the fall of Przemysl—although this does not appear to be the end of their efforts against the Russians in Galicia—the Germans again have turned their attention to the West and simultaneously with the news of the arrival of German reinforcements in Flanders and the province of Artois, France, come official reports of their attacks on positions recently captured by the British and French.

They have recovered some trenches from the British northeast of Givenchy and have stormed the Chateau in the village of Hooge, part of which the British still hold, although for a time the British were compelled to evacuate the building which they captured Monday night.

The Germans also claim to be in possession of the sugar refinery at Souchez, the loss of which they have not previously acknowledged. While these in themselves are considered small matters in military circles here they are believed to be the forerunners of a resumption of fighting on a large scale.

New Troops to Scene.

For some time it has been reported that the French were slowly driving out the Germans from strong positions north of Arras and were, in the words of an officer just returned from the front, "punching a hole in the German line." To stop this movement and also to relieve their troops who, according to British accounts, were suffering severely from British attacks and through their own counter-attacks, the Germans have dispatched a lot of new troops to the Arras-Ypres line and apparently are trying to take the initiative.

It is not believed here that any of these new detachments have been brought from the East, as all accounts indicate that the Austrians and Germans are still vigorously attacking the Russians who are falling back to positions between Przemysl and Lemberg. The Russians are endeavoring to hold the line formed roughly by the lower San, the Wisnia and Dnieater rivers, where there are strong natural positions which are covered partly by the great marshes of the Dniester.

In Eastern Galicia the Russians claim successes. These, however, are denied by the Austrians.

There has been no change on the Austro-Italian frontier, where the Italians in minor engagements have captured a number of positions, but have not as yet come into contact with the main Austrian forces.

LLOYD-GEORGE CAMPAIGNING.

Tells Workmen to Forget Union Regulation During the War.

Liverpool, June 4.—Continuing his campaign for the organization of the munition trades of the country and the speeding up of the output of shell and other war materials required by the army, David Lloyd-George, the new munitions ministers, addressed meetings here today of employers and workmen.

He urged upon the workmen that for and in duration of the war, union regulations should be suspended so that every available man and woman could be employed in the necessary work.

"If every trade unionist," Mr. Lloyd-George told the workmen, "was brought back from the front, and if they worked to the utmost limits of human endurance there would not be enough labor to produce what the government is asking to have produced. During the next few months."

Mr. Lloyd-George admitted that as the government red tape has been cut the trade unionists also must relax their rules. The country, he said, was demanding as a matter of right, and not as a matter of appeal that every one of its citizens should do his best and he did not believe there was any objection to it being made a legal right and duty.

The last two games they won handily from the 31st company of the fort. It is expected that a league will be formed with the fort companies club and Southport for games during the summer.

New York, June 4.—Detroit's Cobb-Crawford combination proved too much for New York today and the Yankees were shut out, 3 to 0, this being their first shut out since Johnson turned the trick in the opening game of the season. In the first inning Cobb's triple scored Ventt and Crawford's single scored Cobb. In the ninth Cobb stole home. Caldwell, in derision threw his glove in the air and O'Loughlin ordered him out of the game. Pich was forced to finish the game without any warm up.

CITY LEAGUE BALL AT SUNSET PARK THIS P. M.

Y. M. C. A. and Giants, Boys' Brigade and W. L. I. Battle for Honors.

Two fast games are scheduled for Sunset Park this afternoon. The Giants and the Y. M. C. A. battle for honors in the first game and the Boys' Brigade and W. L. I. lock horns in the second. The weather man has kindly promised to withhold his daily shower for today and also has stated that warmer weather will prevail.

The City League race has developed into a fast stride and all four of the teams are playing good ball. The Giants and the Infantry boys appear to have the advantage so far, having gotten off in the lead. The Boys' Brigade while playing good ball have been in bad luck so far and have not won a game. Much is expected of them in their clash with the Light Infantry this afternoon. The Y. M. C. A. has played a steady game so far this season and are fast rounding into form. Their early performances were a little loose which fact can be attributed to most of the players on the team being young men playing their first steady scheduled ball.

A good crowd is anticipated to witness today's games. Cars to the park are running on quick schedule, good games are played, the grandstand is comfortable and there is no reason why Wilmington fans should not turn out in goodly numbers to see the City League games.

THREE ALLEGED AGENTS OF BASEBALL POOL ARRESTED.

50,000 Philadelphians Said to Gamble on Games Every Week.

Philadelphia, June 4.—Three alleged agents of a baseball pool in which it is charged 50,000 Philadelphians gamble weekly, were arrested today. Daniel Lucas, of Norristown, Pa., accused of being Pennsylvania agent of the Baseball News Company of New York, was taken into custody at a cigar store which the police say was the local headquarters for the syndicate. Ten thousand coupons for next week's play were found in his possession, detectives said.

Edward Wittuhn and Barton Weaver are the other prisoners. Lucas, the police say, admitted he had obtained three months' leave from the railroad where he was employed, to handle the pool tickets for the New York concern, which he said, is backed by two New York State senators.

THEATRICAL

"The Battle of Running Bull," the greatest military farce that ever was invented, much less transferred to the screen, heads today's big week-end bill at the home of "The Incomparable Movies," the place where you will always see the very newest pictures to be seen in Wilmington. While you see pictures made last winter—some of them three and four months old, at other places, the Bijou is presenting an all-feature programme, composed of releases from two weeks to four weeks of age—that is—just as soon as they leave the very biggest cities.

"The Battle of Running Bull" is a screaming military picture, full of surprises and brimming over with hearty laughter. The ferocious General Delivery, his pretty daughter and her love affairs, Captain Smear, and the other notables, with the uproarious adventures of "Cockie" will keep you in a continual roar. It's in two whole reels, too, a real feature production.

"A Fireside Realization" is a great Rex comedy-drama, featuring that peerless pair, Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips, in a full reel of amusing and exciting incidents.

Then there is a noted Big-U dramatic feature, "Celeste," featuring popular Charles Ogle, who formerly played opposite Mary Fuller, in the leading role.

At the Victoria Today.

Robert Edeson, one of the most popular of the legitimate stars to leave the stage for the screen, will be seen at the Victoria today in a Mutual Masterpicture production "Man's Prerogative." This is a psychological drama dealing with one of the problems of the day. Shall there be one moral law for man and woman? Conventionalities are thrown to the winds and the subject is handled in this drama without gloves. Supporting Mr. Edeson is dashing Billie West as Catherine Cazenore the Dilettante Artist, who comes between the man and wife and her interpretation of the part is one of the noteworthy performances recently seen in motion pictures. In both type and role she is seen in striking contradistinction to Mary Alden as Elizabeth Wade. Added to the programme today is a George Ade comedy, "The Fable of a night given over to revelry." It will appeal especially to the men though its keen satire will be relished by all.

At the Grand Today.

What is said to be the most exciting episode of the Kalem girl detective series is showing at the Grand today. It is "The Tattooed Hand" and shows the manner in which a dangerous gangster is brought to justice. Bat Gorgan was arrested by Patrolman Kerrigan but succeeded in getting away and the only clue the officer has as to the identity of his assailant is the tattoo marks on the man's hands. See how Jean (Cleo Ridgley) effects his capture. The Keystone comedy "Caught in the Act" is full of fast fun and is presented by three of the best comedians in the famous Keystone cast. "The Call of the Range" a one-part drama from the Lubin studio featuring L. C. Shumway and Velma Whitman, is one that will make the observers glow with satisfaction especially when the cowboy millionaire drives out the throng of well-dressed parasites at the point of his revolver. "The Jewelled Dagger of Fate," a Reliance drama, tells a new story in a highly interesting way. A dagger brings back to the mind of a wealthy scoundrel the wrong he has done a girl in Italy and operates to prevent him wronging another and restores the latter to her true love.

Philadelphia, June 4.—Mrs. Marshall MacLean, of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. C. N. Beard, of Philadelphia, will meet tomorrow in the final round for the women's tennis championship of Pennsylvania and Eastern States as a result of the fourth round and semi-final matches played today in the tournament at Merion.

Toronto, Ont., June 4.—The Toronto International's defeated the World's champion Boston Nationals in an exhibition game here today, 5 to 1. Boston had its regular team in the field.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 4.—There is being tried in Edgecombe superior court this week a damage suit for personal injuries brought by W. A. Bunn, of Rocky Mount, against the Atlantic Coast Line, in which he seeks to recover $50,000 damages for injuries sustained while in discharge of his duties as a car repairer at South Rocky Mount.

The young man was at first believed to have been fatally hurt when he suffered a broken back as the result of the side of a box car falling on him, the accident occurring on June 3, 1913. The complainant lingered for weeks and has finally been able to get out in a rolling chair, though paralysis of his lower limbs has resulted. He has this week been appearing as a witness in his case, and with him are his wife and two small children, of whom he is the only support.

The case is being hotly contested with a brilliant array of legal advice on either side, and the hearing has been continued over several days. Attorneys F. S. Spruill and Col. John L. Bridgers are appearing for the defendant company while Messrs. Gilliam, Keel and Pou are appearing for the plaintiff.

Star Pitcher and Manager of the Phillies.

When Pat Moran, former catcher of the Chicago Cubs, took the management of the Phillies of the National League from Charley Dooin, there were predictions that he would be able to accomplish little. Then when his star players began to melt away to the Federal League, fans who didn't like the change were certain he would do nothing this season. But Moran has surprised them. He kept his club in the lead of the league for several weeks and is now neck and neck with the Cubs.

But he wouldn't have done that without the help of "Alexander the Great," Grover Cleveland Alexander, believed to be the first pitcher in baseball today. Alexander is a Democrat, as his name implies, and a Nebraskan. He is six feet tall, 176 pounds in weight and 27 years old.

16,320 AUTOMOBILES IN NORTH CAROLINA

Applications For New Licenses Flood State Department

Motorcycles Rapidly Decreasing in Number—Fourth Company of Coast Artillery Mustered in at Salisbury—Raleigh News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—There are upwards of 16,320 State automobile licenses to be renewed by the Secretary of State within the next thirty days, the new automobile license year beginning July 1. The mails are flooding the office now with these applications for new licenses and with the license fee checks that must accompany them. The gain in the number of automobiles in the State the past year has been about 5,000. The license tax on machines ranges from $5 to $15, according to horse power.

There were about 1,500 motorcycles licensed in the State the past year but these are being annuled for the coming year at the rate of about 20 per day, according to Chief Clerk Sawyer of the State Department. So that there is sure to be a marked decrease in the number of motorcycles. Low priced automobiles seem to be taking their place, says Mr. Sawyer.

Adjutant General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, announces the formal mustering in of a new Fourth Company of Coast Artillery, at Salisbury, to take the place of the company that was disbanded recently for failure to measure up to the requirements of the War Department. The officers of the new company are W. S. Blackmer, Jr., captain; W. S. Ross and Thomas B. Marsh, lieutenants. The company was mustered in by Major E. D. Kuykendall, of Greensboro.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham and Messrs G. C. Wright, C. W. Mitchell, A. Cannon, R. L. Woodard, of the State Board of Agriculture, left today for an official inspection of the new test farm, especially for the growing of bright tobacco in Granville county, near Oxford. The department is making experiments in the growing of grains and other crops on this farm as well as tobacco. This is the second season of the experimental effort there and developments are said to be very satisfactory. Dr. B. W. Kilgore, State Chemist and director of the experiment farm work throughout the State, accompanied the commissioner and party.

CREWS OF COAST GUARD STATIONS OFF TWO MONTHS

But Called to Schooner Carrie Strong —Southport News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., June 4.—On May 31, midnight, the crews of the Coast Guard stations at Oak Island and Cape Fear, under the former service known as lifesavers, came off regular duty for two months, or until midnight of July 31.

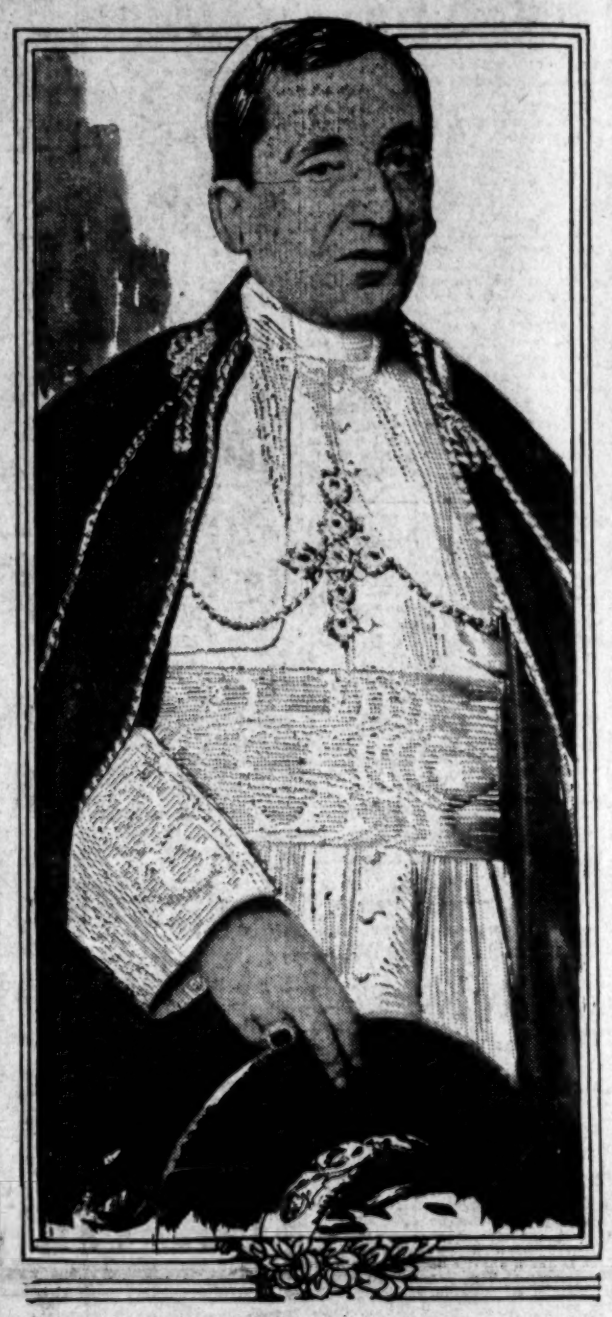
It appears that under the change to Coast Guard there was omitted in the appropriation for the pay of the crews the amount for the two months' pay, June and July. This created a vacuum. So that as much red tape as possible might be aliminated, the crews asked for "leave of absence," thereby obviating discharges and reinstatements. It is said that in the future this will be provided against, by pay for the entire year, thus avoiding the hardship which has always operated against the men in this public service, of forcing them to accept a hazardous job for ten months in the year, and compelling them to be out of pay during a period of the year when work was nearly impossible to obtain, if secured at wages below a living rate, then being subject to call if storms prevailed.

The case of the Schooner Carrie Strong, which went on the Frying Pan Shoals on the morning of Wednesday, this week, is an instance of the lifesavers being called into service, during an enforced socalled vacation.

While the weather has not been favorable for the opening of the tourist season, the steamer Wilmington is on the double daily round trip service, giving a most delightful river trip, with the best provision at this end for those who wish to stop, for a meal or over night, that has been offered in years. The steamer's passengers have a splendid service offered them right as they land at the formr stand of Hotel Brunswick, which is run in connection with steamer, where ladies can be made comfortable between boat trips, a comfortable chair with a fine view and breeze.

The building for Dosher and St. George's shrimp factory is completed, with the exception of engine and boiler, which are being installed this week. Already "big shrimp," as they are called locally, are being brought in, the quantity being small, these being peddled about town and sold by the quart. They are large and fat.

Most Recent and Best Photo of the Pope.



This is the best and most recent photograph of Pope Benedict XV. It shows him just as he appeared a few weeks before he gave an audience to Bishop Thomas F. Kennedy and a number of American priests. At that time he told them he hoped the United States would use her best efforts to end the European war. The audience was one of the very few granted since Italy entered the war.

The photograph was taken shortly before Italy declared war on Austria. It has been reported that the pope will leave Rome should the war become serious, and ecclesiastics of Spain have invited him to take up his residence there. There have even been suggestions that he move to England.

The photograph was made by Nicolai Perschid, who was sent to Rome for the purpose by Dr. Hartmann, the archbishop of Cologne, in Germany. The photographer had considerable difficulty in getting his camera into Italy on account of the strained relations between Germany and Italy. Only on the intervention of Count von Bulow, the German amuassador to Italy, did he succeed.

24 YEARS FOR ISADORE BEST

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., June 4.—Isadore Best, the eighteen-year-old negro charged with the murder of B. F. Beatty at the Enterprise Lumber Company's plant, one mile south of here, about two months ago, was tried in Wayne Superior court yesterday and found guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to twenty-four years in the penitentiary.

Some of the most able attorneys obtainable had been employed to defend him, while parties here had employed attorneys to assist the solicitor.

In view of the circumstances surrounding the murder, it was generally believed here that a verdict of first-degree murder would be the outcome of the trial, consequently quite a good bit of disappointmen has been expressed here today over the matter, assuming the proportions of indignation in some instances.

KINSTON CLAIMS CLEANEST COTTON MILL SETTLEMENTS

Two Villages Thoroughly Cleaned and Painted Besides "Spotlesstown."

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 4.—Kinston now claims the three cleanest mill villages in this section of the country. Besides the Caswell cotton mills' "Spotlesstown," which Dr. Stiles, the Federal health expert, a year or two ago declared was the model of the eastern part of the United States, the Kinston cotton mills and Orion knitting mills communities in the suburbs to the east of the city have been so thoroughly cleaned up and painted up as to earn the congratulations of the health authorities and medical fraternity.

Miss Newton, a hygiene specialist, is employed regularly in the latter two. The Caswell village is on the western side of town. Prizes are offered in all three for best vegetable gardens, flower yards and the cleanest premises. No flies are had in either village, it is said. A mass meeting of the Orion and Kinston mill villagers in Christ Episcopal church, East Kinston, last night appointed three committees to work for clean homes, gardens and beautification. Garden seeds will be furnished free by the managements of the mills. The attention of the city authorities was called to the fact that while Kinston proper has but one "clean-up week" in a year, these suburbs populated by mill operatives have 52. The Caswell town, besides having a remarkably low death rate and being an extraordinarily clean community, operates a community store, the first of the kind in this region, which clears big dividends.

GOT WET AT REUNION

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 4.—In apparent good health when he journeyed to the reunion recently, Mr. A. G. Dawes, a well known and respected Confederate veteran, returned Wednesday night to his home slightly sick as the result of getting wet while in the parade in Richmond and he became alarmingly ill late yesterday afternoon with a congestive chill and died before medical attention, which was summoned, could reach him.

The deceased was in his 72nd year and was a gallant soldier, a good citizen and a planter who through his efforts had accumulated some property through his thrift. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends.

MRS. HAND SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS IN PEN

Her Attorneys Appeal to the Supreme Court.

Found Guilty of Manslaughter, After Nearly Four Hours Deliberation—Charged With Killing Brother —Court Adjourns.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 4.—Mrs. Grover C. Hand, on trial here since yesterday morning for killing her brother, Geo. P. Jordan, at their father's home, five miles from here, in May, 1914, was found guilty by the jury about 3:30 this afternoon of manslaughter and sentenced by Judge George Rountree to serve two years in the penitentiary. Attorneys for Mrs. Hand gave notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

The case was given to the jury before noon today, following the closing argument for the defense by Herbert McClammy, Esq., of Wilmington, followed by the argument by Solicitor Homer L. Lyon, and the charge to the jury by Judge Rountree. The jury had the case under deliberation nearly four hours. When the verdict was announced, attorneys for Mrs. Hand moved that the verdict be set aside. This motion Judge Rountree overruled.

The judge stated that the defendant had had a fair trial, that her case had been ably presented, that in his opinion it could not have been more ably looked after, that the verdict was fully justified by the evidence and that in his opinion it was a righteous verdict —hence the painful duty devolved upon him to pronounce sentence upon her, which was two years in the penitentiary. The appeal bond was fixed at the same amount as that of the bond she has been under since soon after the homicide.

The grand jury adjourned this morning, after a week of strenuous work, having found 40 true bills and 10 not true bills.

Court adjourned this afternoon. Judge Rountree certainly has done good work and has been faithful, in the opinion of the citizens of this county. He grows in favor the longer he serves and the people of this county will be glad to have him preside here again.

MAILED THREATENING LETTERS TO CUNARD LINE.

Man Arrested Who Claimed to Have Put Bomb Aboard Lusitania.

New York, June 4.—Detectives stationed at a mail drop in the general postoffice here, today, arrested Frederick A. Stillwagon, resident of Long Island, and charged him with sending 14 threatening letters to the officials of the Cunard Line demanding sums from $20,000 to $25,000. Stillwagon was arrested, according to the police, after he had mailed another letter to the Cunard Line. The oplice declare the prisoner admitted mailing the letters.

In several of the letters Stillwagon is alleged to have threatened to blow up vessels of the Cunard Line unless his demands were complied with.

Immediately after the destruction of the Lusitania the police charge, the writer of a letter received at the Cunard offices stated that one of his bombs placed in the ship before she sailed from New York, was responsi-

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Safety+Quickness

"Safety First" must ever be the watchword in firearms. But safety must not be secured at the expense of quick action. The Colt Automatic Pistol combines the most dependable kind of safety—automatic safety—with instant firing.

The Colt can't be discharged accidentally, because the trigger must be pulled and the safety in the grip must be pressed in at the same instant and this can't be done except it is done purposely. So much for safety.

As for quickness, the Colt always gets there first, for in an emergency you don't have to bother with or think about the grip safety—it takes care of itself and you.

SATURDAY, June 5, 1915.

We'd rather be right than president of either Mexico or Portugal, or the Daughters of the Revolution.

June has tasted so much like November during the past few days that we caught ourselves yesterday dating a dispatch November 4th.

The difference between a man and a woman is that when they "view the landscape o'er," a woman wants to take it in, while a man wants to fence it in.

Dr. Eliza Ransom insists that women should court men. Well, so far as men are concerned, they prefer to go on being "inveigled into the meshes of matrimony."

We continue to regard the submarine as an undersea assassin, but we are expecting any day to hear that the name for it in South Carolina is a "low down water wagon."

King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, is at the front and whatever booty may be gathered in, we don't suppose that any one would dare dispute the fact that "to the Victor belongs the spoils."

The Hon. Barnes says he is sorry the Hon. Roosevelt got one of his ribs broken, but that is no reason to infer that the Hon. Barnes would have gone fishing if something had happened to some two or three of the Colonel's ribs.

The New York Sun queries: "If a Progressive is stripped of his fads, nostrums and isms, what would be left of him?" Of course, he would still have that dark brown taste at the very thought of his once having been a Republican.

A Chicago cutter who makes out like he knows says tight-legged pantaloons are coming back into fashion. Those words give a very large pain to those whose feet at the small end of tight pants will look like a pair of canvass hams attacked to stilts.

Heretofore, when a man has sported a flowing beard it has been alluded to as his "hirsute appendage." However, the New Orleans States has gone to violating its neutrality by referring to the beard of our old friend Vin Carranza as a hairy "lambrequin."

A lady complains that her husband so seldom reads the Bible that dusting it off has become drudgery to her. The old man ought to be ashamed of himself. If he keeps on neglecting to read the Bible, his poor wife will have to read it herself to keep it from getting dusty.

The war conditions in Europe have gotten to the point where the soldiers of some of the belligerents are barefooted. Besides feeding millions of men, one of the difficulties in keeping them in good order is to provide clothing and shoes for them every few weeks. A soldier's shoes and clothes do not last long on a rough march.

A Washington lady wants a divorce from her husband because he "acts like a pig and eats all the strawberry shortcake." We hate to see so much of this divorce business going on when there are other ways to get ahead of a man. One way for the Washington lady to do it is to see the strawberry shortcake first and not have any for dinner till after the old man gets his dinner and leaves. Of course, he would sue for divorce if he should find it out, but most men don't find anything out till it's too late.

A lecturer says: "There should be some law to put a stop to incessant loquacity in this country." We positively refrain from approving any further abridgement of the rights of American women. I would take all the vivacity and piquancy out of the girls if they had to sit around as if the cat had their tongues. We know a philosopher who says you can never trust a sphinx-like person, for the reason that he never knows whether they are plotting some kind of strategy, planning for treason, or contemplating spoils of some sort or other.

A THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS.

What an enormous amount of money that is! Few can conceive of the magnitude of such a sum. Yet that is the trade balance that is likely to be shown in favor of Uncle Sam when his books close on the 30th of this month. The net trade balance up to June 1 was well in excess of $900,000,000, while Secretary Redfield estimates that our exports for June will be not less than $100,000,000, with the probability that it will be much more.

This huge balance of trade is the largest in the history of the United States. It exceeds by $350,000,000 the record balance of trade in 1908. Even with such an enormous trade balance for this fiscal year, it must be remembered that during two months of the year our exports fell off on account of the European war and the balance of trade for the two months was against us.

No tariff ever framed by the Republicans has ever resulted in such a huge trade balance as the war has brought to us. No tariff has ever so effectually shut out foreign goods as the war has done. Quite naturally, with exports large and imports small, American industries ought to have it all their own way. However, small imports mean diminished revenue for the government, and they also are detrimental in a way to our industries.

Queer as it may seem to Republicans, when imports are small it is not to the advantage of the American people or all of their industries. It is international trade in both imports and exports that brings us prosperity. If we had no foreign trade, representing a fair exchange of our products for the European products that we need and must have, we would have to live off each other. The war has shown us what a hard time we would have in doing that.

With foreign customers for our surplus products, we are enabled to buy at home as well as from abroad. Every farmer knows that if he can't sell his products he can't buy those of others, so it is certain that if America could not sell to Europe our own markets would be glutted with our own products, with the result that low prices would bankrupt every farmer or other producer in this country.

One thing that the war in Europe demonstrates is that some of the fine spun Republican arguments about prosperity, as a result of shutting out imports, are based upon a theory which war laughs to scorn. Even our low Democratic tariff has failed to bring us enough foreign goods to enable us to get sufficient revenue to support the government without levying a tax on ourselves.

EDITOR COWAN BEREAVED

The Star's sincere condolence is tendered to Editor James H. Cowan, of The Evening Dispatch, on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret A. Cowan, widow of the lamented Captain John Cowan, whose memory is so dear to us who knew him in life and esteemed him for his fine intellectual and social qualities and his unvarying gallantry.

The numerous friends of the family are pained at the death of Mrs. Cowan, and their sympathy goes out to her sons, Messrs. Robert H. and James H. Cowan, who can count every acquaintance as a friend. "Into all lives some rain must fall," but when the clouds lower over those for whom we have specially warm regard, we can but express regret that they should have cause to be bowed in sorrow.

THE PRESS IS ANGERED.

Star readers have read much of the press comment in the United States concerning the reply of the German imperial government to the note addressed to it concerning American complaints of the submarine warfare that has destroyed shipping and innocent lives contrary to international and humane laws. In publishing scores of editorial comments from leading newspapers in the North, the South, the East and the West, the New Orleans States introduces them under the title used over this article, which is that paper's pretty correct interpretation of the composite spirit of the expressions printed.

Mildly stated, the uniform sentiment expressed by the newspapers is that Germany's reply to America's demands set forth in the plainest of terms, is that it is unsatisfactory. Of course, it is neither satisfactory to the Washington administration nor to the people of the United States. President Wilson has so stated in another note to Berlin, but his rejoinder is couched in the courteous language due from one government to another.

The tone of the press, however, is declared by the New Orleans States to be one of "resentment and anger." The editors have used adjectives, which, if used by President Wilson, would mean the end of all effort to get a reasonably satisfactory answer from Germany. An answer is what President Wilson wants instead of a reply, and he is trying to get such an answer as will prevent a breach between the German Empire and the American Republic.

The press is not responsible to the people, but President Wilson is. However, he knows from the press that public sentiment will back any course he pursues. The press probably strongly expresses public sentiment, but if it does not do so it will create the sentiment which will tally with its own. Lots of the editors have called a spade a meat-axe, but the conservative comment is that the "situation is delicate, indeed precarious."

That is really the situation as President Wilson is endeavoring to present it to Germany, but the press can make his task impossible by means of the usually free-speech style of American newspapers, voicing or creating the kind of public sentiment that knows no diplomatic limits.

President Wilson has a serious task as well as a sacred duty to perform, but he will have to get his nerve from the press and depend on his own wisdom to adjust a grave international controversy that strong press adjectives only make graver for him.

CO-OPERATION AND DOUBLE PROFITS ON THE FARM

Dr. Clarence Poe, editor of The Progressive Farmer, Raleigh, N. C., sends The Star a new book of which he is the author. It's title is "How Farmers Co-operate and Double Profits." Don't you think it is just a dry book, for it is nothing of the kind. It is a book of knowledge, and for a man or woman who needs and loves to know things it is as interesting as a novel. It does not deal with romance but it is romantic in the practical exploitation of a subject that the wisest person should study in order not to be ignorant in a very important respect.

We think books like that by Dr. Poe are more valuable than some other books bound in "greenbacks" or gilded with the real auriferous stuff. They add to human knowledge, and, so far as this new book is concerned, it is indeed a valuable contribution to agricultural bibliology. No man lives to himself, nor can any man farm to himself and be doing his best. He must co-operate with others and understand what co-operation means. He will, if he reads Dr. Poe's new book, which truly is a practical guide book to the whole subject of rural co-operation.

We greatly appreciate the efforts of those who take up a subject, make a thorough study of it and then hand us the matured ideas so they can be appropriated and absorbed. We get them in "How Farmers Co-Operate and Double Profits." They are stored up in book form so we can go to the library, or reach out on a table, or look on a shelf and get concrete knowledge bound and ready for use. It saves a lot of research, but it does not keep us from thinking. In fact, it puts us to thinking on one of the biggest subjects that we can think about in the South.

There are a great many theories about rural co-operation and all that, but the practical value of the Poe book is that it groups in 27 chapters 27 ways in which people in the rural sections should co-operate to their own profit and the profit of their communities. Besides that, the author appeals for leaders along this line, and concludes with four chapters in an appendix giving all the details about organizing and carrying on co-operative work on any or all lines which will serve a community to advantage. We get it all in a nutshell, along with true stories of the actual and practical benefits of coperation demonstrated by co-operative experiences.

We are bound to think well of a book of this character, for we have been long convinced of its need. The book is published by Orange Judd & Co., New York. It is a work of 256 pages. In cloth binding the price is $1.50 and it may be ordered from The Progressive Farmer, Raleigh, N. C. That valuable farm journal and the book will be sent for $2.

THE NETHINIM OF THE NORTH.

To the Editor of The Star:

It is charged, as shown by the annual published statements of the insurance companies, that North Carolina pays out yearly something like $10,500,000.00 and receives back somethink like $3,500,000.00; that she pays out $3.00 for every $1.00 received, a rate on each dollar of 200 per cent.

The exact figures for the year ending December 31, 1909 (report of 1910, the latest we happen to have before us), are $10,199,904.57 paid out and $3,676,076.43 paid back. Using this as an average for the past 15 years (dating from about the time when we first began to call attention to this "drain"), the sum paid out amounts to $157,500,000.00 and the sum received to $52,500,000.00. Add to this the excess (and interest) above receipts since 1865, and the sum is simply astounding, amounting by fair estimation to well over a quarter of a billion dollars.

Let us suppose, in a visionary way, that this sum had been left in our local banks, and that it had been used for home development; the possible result is almost beyond economic computation. The State, every county, city, town, and township, would possibly be, financially, ten years ahead of what we are today. As it is, with our lands only 50 per cent developed, life has been almost a burden from having to hear the constant wail of lack of money, in government, religion, education and everything else that tends to make life worth living. We are slow; we are behind in many matters; we still follow the line of least resistance and "pile on the miller," taxing, when we need anything, and for everything, the poor old landowner. We continue to play the part of the Nethinim and serve the Hartford temple.

We do not say that this "drain" can be stopped; we do say, however, that it can be, from the standpoint of State economy, better handled.

It is charged that other States, struggling with this proposition, have secured, and are now enjoying, certain remedial and reform laws that are not enjoyed by the citizens of our State. If this be true, is it not time for a showing to be made before the people, by those who would govern us, and for judgment to be had, as between those proposing and standing for these reforms and those standing against them? E. R. MacKETHAN.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 4, 915.

TYPHOID GOING IN VANCE

Great Interest Shown and Hundreds Are Vaccinated.

(State Board of Health.)

Typhoid will have slim chances to flourish in Vance county this summer, judging from the number of vaccinations that are being given there. Already over 800 have been given the treatment and the work is going on steadily showing increased interest every month.

Dr. D. C. Absher, who is whole time health officer for this county, has so organized the work that each day of the week takes him to a different dispensary point. He is giving every man, women and child in the county an opportunity to become immunized against typhoid and whether or not they accept it, the consequences are theirs to bear.

At the different dispensary points, wherever an opportunity presents itself usually at night, Dr. Absher gives illustrated health lectures, and often arranges for talks and lectures by other physicians. He distributes free health literature and instructs as far as possible along lines pertaining to health and sanitation.

It is couraging that most of the people of this county seem to appreciate this opportunity to protect themselves against typhoid and are availing themselves of the privilege. Only last Saturday in Henderson 150 were vaccinated. Dr. Absher believes that almost every person has accepted treatment where the campaign first started.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We saw it stated some days ago that a public spirited citizen of Wilmington, whose name was withheld, had donated $1,000 to playgrounds for the children of two schools in that city. It now develops that this public spirited citizen was Mr. James Sprunt, a man who is constantly doing something for the good of humanity.—Lumberton Tribune.

The Manufacturers' Record this week prints an illustrated contribution on the progress of the work of canalization of the Cape Fear river between Wilmington and Fayetteville. It is written by Mr. Thomas H. Sutton, secretary of the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, and gives an adequate conception of the magnitude of the undertaking and the stage of the work accomplished. The construction of the locks changes the topography of the historic river materially, giving it the appearance of a tidewater commerce carrier. A raft is shown passing through one of the locks which was completed last October and in another picture the government yacht Mercur, the same which carried the congressional committee some years ago over the stretch of river to be improved, is seen under stream. King's Bluff, the location of the completed lock, is at the head of tide water and at that point the river is 320 feet wide. The lock itself is 40 feet wide and 200 feet long and it takes 20 minutes for a vessel to pass through it. Mr. Sutton says a large portion of the people of Fayetteville "are ignorant as to just what is being done, the magnitude of the work and its great and far-reaching benefits to our city." He might have enlarged so as to have made these remarks apply to the State.—Charlotte Observer.

Ex-Senator Marion Butler's announced intention to take an active part in the nomination of the Republican candidate for Governor may be regarded as an indication of the active character of campaign the Republicans are going to make. It is an open secret that the more sanguine of them are honestly expecting the capture of the State, and while that is an improbability, the Democrats might as well face the truth, which is just this: The Republicans are lining up for the strongest fight they have made in North Carolina since the Vance-Settle campaign in 1876. The information this paper was able to secure from the politicians of both parties during the last Legislature is being justified as events are slowly unfolding. The Republicans are going to put up a strong man for Governor, but it will not be Mr. Duncan or any other politician of record. It is likely that Mr. Duncan will have the naming of the man, or possibly that he has already named him. It is a further fact that the North Carolina Republicans expect the influence and financial support of the National Republican Committee, and Mr. Duncan's recent visit to New York was probably in connection with some of the details of this arrangement. The State Democrats will be up against a strong proposition next year, and to take any other view would be simply the encouragement of a false sense of security. It is going to be a time for our strongest men on the ticket and our best orators on the stump.—Charlotte Observer.

ITCHING ECZEMA COVERED ENTIRE BODY, RESINOL CURED

Could Not Sleep. 8 Remedies had Failed. Resinol Stopped Itching Immediately.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 11, 1914.—"My entire body, even my eyelids, was completely covered with blisters as large as a pea. When one would burst water would come from it, and then it would turn into a very painful sore. The burning and itching were something terrible, and I COULD NOT SLEEP nor rest. I think I had one of the worst cases of eczema a human being ever had. "I used eight different kinds of remedies without success. I then tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and it stopped the itching IMMEDIATELY. I gradually noticed a change for the better. Now I am entirely cured, and am without a pimple or blemish on any part of my body."—(Signed) Edward F. McCullough, 249 River St., Mattapan. DISCUSS PROSPECTS FOR CREAMERY HERE

Conference Was Held Yesterday Morning.

Attended by Expert From State Experiment Station—First Efforts Toward More Pastures and Better Cattle.

Efforts of farmers and business men interested in the establishment of a co-operative creamery for New Hanover and the adjoining counties will first be directed toward bringing about an increased cultivation of waste lands for pastures and toward improving and increasing the cattle of the section, according to a decision reached at an informal conference held yesterday morning in the office of Mr. Frank Mead in the Murchison building, when Mr. Stanley Combs, dairy farming investigator for the North Carolina Experiment Station, was present and gave the gathering the benefit of his advice.

Present at the meeting were Mr. Mead, Mr. J. P. Herring, county farm demonstrator; Mr. Hugh MacRae, Mr. D. D. Latta, Mr. J. A. Orrell, Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur, Mr. C. Van Leuven, Capt. Edgar Williams and others, all of whom are interested in the movement for a co-operative dairy

It is the idea of those interested in the matter to use every effort to get the farmers in this section to cultivate heir waste lands for pasturage and increase and improve their cattle, beginning in a small way and increasing their herds as the development of pasturage facilities warrants. Then, when the milk production of a community has outgrown the demand, it is proposed to establish co-operative milk routes, and to send milk to this city each day. When finally, the production of the section outgrows the demand in Wilmington, then it is proposed to establish the co-operative creamery.

Mr. Combs pointed out yesterday that this section has every favorable condition for dairy farming, and that this could be carried on without interfering with truck farming operations, as lands that are now not used can be cultivated into splendid pastures.

He mentioned that a trip along any of the county roads will show Red Top, White and Burr Clover and Bermuda grass growing in the wild uncultivated state. Properly cultivated, these crops, on lands now unused, would furnish a splendid pasture that would need no attention for five years.

The next step, he said, would be to improve the breed of the cattle here, by getting better cows and breeding to blooded sires. Each farmer should start in a small way, he said, with one or more cows, according to the pasturage facilities of his farm, and as these facilities are developed, add more cattle.

This has been been the method followed in the Piedmont section of the State, Mr. Combs says, where many of the farmers are realizing by this means from $30 to $35 per acre from land formerly unproductive.

Following the meeting yesterday, Mr. Combs took a trip over the county with Mr. Herring, the farm demonstrator. He will be here today also, and will probably make a further investigation of the farms and farming sections of the county.

WEEKLY SHOOT YESTERDAY

Winchester Representative Breaks 117 Out of Possible 125.

Mr. John Des Portes, representative in this district for the Winchester Arms Company, led the field at the weekly shoot of the New Hanover Gun Club yesterday afternoon, dropping only eight targets out of 125. He broke 93 out of his first 100 and dropped one more out of the next 25.

The local members of the club did very creditable shooting also. The members are practicing now for the annual State tournament, which will be held here June 29 and 30. Local scatter gun artists who would like to practice up for the State meet are invited to attend the weekly shoots of the club.

BEACH SEASON OPENS TODAY

Summer Suburban Schedule in Effect —First Regular Dance at Lumina This Evening.

With the inauguration of the summer schedule over the Tidewater Power Company's suburban line this morning and the first of the regular dances at Lumina this evening, today marks the formal opening of the season at Wrightsville Beach, and from now on until early fall the resort is expected to be the gayest place in North Carolina.

Two hotels and nearly all of the cottages at the beach are already open, and there are a number of visitors at the resort from other points already. All indications point to a splendid season, and ample preparations have been made to entertain the many visitors expected.

Beginning this morning, the regular summer schedule over the beach line will go into effect, with cars every half hour during the morning and afternoon and rush hours of the evening. The schedule appears elsewhere in today's issue.

The Philharmonic Concert Band, of Philadelphia, in charge of Mr. Charles M. Fry, the organizer and director, arrived last evening from the north and went immediately to Wrightsville Beach to enter today upon its engagement with the Tidewater Power Company for the music at Lumina this season. The band consists of ten pieces and the organization is either for concert or orchestra work, the string instruments doubling on brass, as it is known in musical lingo. The band will play for the regular week-end dance at Lumina tonight and for the two concerts there tomorrow afternoon and evening.

By way of introduction to the Wilmington public the Philharmonic Band will give a free band concert between 6:30 and 7 o'clock this evening from the second floor balcony of The Orton, in the city, leaving soon thereafter for the beach. The organization comes with the very highest recommendations and promises to add much to the pleasure of visitors to the beach this summer

OPENING SESSION HELD YESTERDAY

More Than 100 Delegates Here for C. E. Convention.

Visitors Welcomed by Colonel Walker Taylor, Mr. B. B. Reynolds and Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells—Reception Last Evening.

Called to order by State President George L. Mitchell, of this city, and with more than 100 visiting delegates in attendance, the 17th annual convention of the North Carolina Christian Endeavor Union opened yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, and will continue in session through tomorrow.

Following the opening session yesterday afternoon, a business session was held last evening, and after this a most enjoyable reception was given to the visiting delegates in the church parlors. Today's programme includes a business session this morning, a trip to Wrightsville Beach this afternoon, and another session tonight.

At the opening session yesterday afternoon Rev. W. M. Baker, of this city, conducted the song and devotional service, following which , on behalf of the city of Wilmington, Col. Walker Taylor welcomed the visiting delegates in his usual happy and eloquent style. The address of welcome on behalf of the Christian Endeavorers of this city was delivered by Mr. B. B. Reynolds, and on behalf of the church by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. George W. Taylor, of Rocky Mount, delivered an eloquent response to the several addresses of welcome.

Following several musical numbers and the junior calls and conference, led by Mrs. Lewis McFarland, junior and international superintendent, of High Point, and Miss Ida McLean Black, of this city, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock.

The praise service at the opening of the evening session was led by Rev. P. L. Clark, State vice president, of Burgaw. The principal features of this session included an interesting and impressive address on "The Christian Endeavorers Social Duty," by Rev. William Hooper Adams, State vice president, of Charlotte; and a conference on "Social Service," led by Rev. E. J. Harold, educational superintendent of Greensboro.

The reception to the visiting delegates, given in the church parlors immediately after the evening session, was a most enjoyable event, and was very largely attended by the visiting delegates and the local Endeavorers and their friends. Nothing was overlooked that would tend to make the visitors feel completely at home, and the evening passed away most pleasantly for all present.

The visiting delegates are being entertained in the homes of the Wilmington Endeavorers, and in addition to the more than 100 already registered, a number of other delegates are expected to arrive today.

The detailed programme for today is as follows:

The work will be done with a motor pressure distributor sent here for the purpose by the Barrett Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of Tarvia.

Provide Council Chamber.

In the general plans for rearranging things up at the city hall, a council chamber is said to be under consideration, the idea being to remove the engineering department to some other porton of the building, converting this room into an assembly room of the required dimensions, seating capacity, etc. The suggestion will likely be taken up at a future meeting of the council.

LOCAL DIVER HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Entangled in Caisson Under 20 Feet of Water.

Archie Marine Rescued After Remaining on Bottom of River for Over Two Hours With His Lines Caught.

More dead than alive, after having been under some 20 feet of water for more than two hours, his diving apparatus entangled in a caisson at the bottom of which he was working, Archie Marine, 58 years old, a well known diver of this city, was extricated from his perilous position at Hilton railway bridge yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock and rushed to the James Walker Memorial Hospital in this city, where he was recovering last night from the results of an experience that few men can boast of having undergone.

Marine will live, it is said, but at one time yesterday afternoon, those who were working persistently to get him to the surface after he had failed to respond to signals from above the water and those who had hold of the life line discovered that the diver had become entangled, would not have given a penny for his chances of ultimate rescue.

The diver was engaged several days ago to do the diving for Superintendent Williams, of the Vaugn Construction Co., of Roanoke, Va., which has the contract for installing the new draw in the bridge over the Cape Fear river at Hilton, and Mr. Williams had taken the precaution to provide Mr. Marine with the very latest and most approved diving apparatus. The caissons are lowered into the 30 feet or more of water and after striking foundations, are then filled with concrete to ensure a lasting foundation for the bridge superstructure above. These caissons are large enough to admit of a man going down in them, but there are numerous braces inside the temporary structure and after going yesterday afternoon to the bottom of one of them, Mr. Marine went under one of the braces in some way and came up on the other side entangling the life line and the signal line. Those who were on the surface noticed that after a while they failed to receive the diver's signals for air and they found that they could not signal to the diver. They attempted to draw him up, but found the lines entangled. They then decided to pump the air to Mr. Marine as best they knew how without signals and a hurry call was sent to Mr. Edw. P. Bailey, of the Wilmington Iron Works, asking that Mr. Harry B. Therian, an expert diver and superintendent of the Wilmington Marine Railway Co., be sent to the rescue as early as possible. The Mohawk was at once pressed into service and Mr. Therian was soon on the scene. With rare coolness and daring, he soon donned other apparatus and entered the caisson with the entangled diver and speedily went to the bottom, cutting loose the entanglements. The air had been pumped to the diver in such quantities that once extricated, he immediately came to the top and was rushed on the boat to the city. He was unconscious and terribly congested as the result of the experience and it was not until after he had reached the hospital and been worked with for some time that he regained consciousness. It was stated at the hospital last night that the patient was slowly but surely recovering and that the accident need not necessarily result in permanent or fatal injury.

Mr. Marine was bruised over the shoulders and on the arms as the result of the heroic measures that had to be taken to pull him up, but his greatest suffering was the congestion on account of his long confinement under the water and the amount of air that had been pumped into the apparatus to ensure him a sufficiency in the absence of any signals. It was stated that when the diver was found, he had turned head downward and was in an extremely dangerous position had the extrication not occurred as promptly as it did.

The friends of the well known diver will be glad to know that his injuries are not thought now to be fatal and that he will be out again within a reasonable time.

ENLARGING DANCE PAVILION.

Morning and Evening Dances at the Oceanic Hotel.

Manager J. E. Clayton will put a crew of men to work this morning enlarging the open air dancing pavilion at the Oceanic Hotel, at Wrightsville Beach. The work will be rushed to completion at once, and the already commodious pavilion will be considerably enlarged.

The pavilion at the Oceanic is located on the ocean side of the hotel, where it is swept by the breezes day and night. The morning dances at the Oceanic last summer were a popular feature with the residents and visitors at the beach, and Mr. Clayton plans to continue them this summer, and to give evening dances as well.

He has secured the services of Prof. W. H. Levin and his orchestra, and the concerts already given by the organization have pleased all who heard them. The orchestra will be at the hotel all summer, and will furnish the music for the dances at the Oceanic.

FOUNTAIN HAS ARRIVED

Will Be Placed as Soon as Location is Decided Upon.

The fountain for birds and animals, to be presented to the city by the school children of Wilmington, through the generosity of Miss Annie M. Dore, of Arlington, Mass., has arrived.

It will be put in place as soon as the location has been decided upon. The location is to be selected by a committee from City Council, appointed by Mayor Moore at the request of Mr. John J. Blair, city superintendent of schools. Several members of the committee have been out of the city, and this has delayed the selection of a site for the fountain.

Charleston, S. C., June 4.—Mac D. Dexter, of Columbus, Ga., was elected president of the Southern Gas Association, at the closing business session here today. E. D. Brewer, of Atlanta, was re-elected secretary and treasurer, and C. M. Benedict, of Charleston, was chosen vice president. Tampa, Fla., was selected as the meeting place for 1916.

SCHOONER LITTLE DAMAGED

Carrie Strong Pulled Off Frying Pan Shoals Yesterday Morning and Towed Into Port.

With her shoe slightly damaged, apparently the only injury suffered from her experience on the Frying Pan Shoals, the American schooner Carrie Strong, in ballast from Portland, Me., to Ceylon, Ga., was towed into this port early last night by harbor tugs, which with the coast guard cutter Seminole went to the assistance of the schooner Thursday afternoon. The Carrie Strong wil go on the marine railway for repairs and examination before continuing her journey.

The fact that the vessel was in ballast is accountable for her getting off the shoals with so little damage. With the wind blowing almost a gale when she struck, a vessel with a heavy cargo would have been pounded to pieces. The Carrie Strong encountered the gale off Lookout Wednesday afternoon and struck the shoals while running before it early Wednesday morning. Life savers from the shore went to her soon after she struck.

After the storm subsided, the vessel being light, an attempt was made to use her sails to drive her across the shoals which was partly successful, the vessel getting off yesterday morning just before noon with some little assistance from the Seminole and the tugs Castor and Blanche. The vessel was too far on the shoals for the relief vessels to get a line to her until this morning. A line was gotten to her at 11 o'clock this morning and she was pulled off soon after.

Damage to the vessel is reported very slight apparently. She will probably be put on the marine railway for examination and repair to her shoe, after which she will continue her journey to Ceylon. Captain Hart is in command of the vessel. She comes to C. D. Maffitt & Co.

HEARING ON ESTABLISHMENT HARBOR LINES AT BEAUFORT.

Maj. H. W. Stickle Announces June 21st As the Date for Hearing.

Maj. H. W. Stickle, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, in charge of the Wilmington District, has issued public notice that pursuant to request of the Chamber of Commerce of Beaufort, N. C., for the establishment of harbor lines at that place, the Chief of Engineers has authorized a public hearing, with a view to considering the advisability, or otherwise, of establishing harbor lines at Beaufort, as may be desired by interested parties.

The establishment of harbor lines authorizes riparian owners to extend structures to the limits defined by such lines, without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of War, as is required in other cases.

The harbor line will be tentaively located and marked on the site of the intersections and ends of tangents by stakes, boards, or pIes, marked H1, H2, H3, etc., east to west.

In order that all parties interested in the proposed establishment may be given full opportunity to express their views public hearing will be held in the court house, Beaufort, N. C., June 21, 1915, at 2 p. m.

All interested parties are cordially invited to attend this hearing and are particularly requested to examine the line which will be marked before that time.

It is preferred that, as far as practicable, arguments and statements be submitted in writing.

THREE NEGROES SENTENCED FOR VIOLATING PROHIBITION LAW.

Alonzo Brown, Ben Holly and Josephine Young Get Six Months Each.

Thre cases against as many colored defendants, charged with violating the prohibition law, kept the Recorder's court in session from 10 o'clock yesterday morning until after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The negroes, Alonzo Brown, Ben Holly and Josephine Young, were found guilty and sentenced to six months each, the men on the roads and the woman on the farm. Holly appealed his case to the Superior Court, and in default of bond in the sum of $200 went to jail.

The negroes were indicted under the law which makes it prima facie evidence of intention to sell to have more than one gallon of whiskey on hand at one time. The officers testified that at the home of Holly and the woman Young they found over 10 gallons of whiskey concealed in the chimney, while the evidence against Brown was that two suit cases packed with whiskey were found under his hearth.

The case against Leonard Sterne, a young white man charged with conspiring to extort money under threat of criminal prosecution, set for trial yesterday, was continued until June 10th at the request of the defendant's counsel. A case against Addie Nixon, colored, charged with obtaining money under false pretense, was continued until Monday.

FIRST OF SERIES OF MEETINGS.

Educational Interests of City to Be Discussed at Chamber of Commerce.

Beginning a series of monthly meetings to be held in future at which there will be a practical discussion of some phase of the city's various activities, the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday afternoon will be featured by addresses by Chairman J. O. Carr, of the County Board of Education, and Supt. John J. Blair, on the development of the school system in the city and county. The discussion will be both from a business and educational standpoint and it will prove very interesting for all who attend.

The meeting will be the first of the series announced by President Louis E. Hall, who is taking a lively interest in the affairs of the Chamber and hopes to make each and every meeting of vital interest to each and every member.

Pleasure Boats at Beach.

Already quite a large fleet of sail boats and gasoline launches has assembled at Wrightsville Beach in readiness for the opening season, and those desiring to go outside on sailing parties or fishing trips will have no trouble in securing boats. The vessels are in the Banks Channel, at the Oceanic Hotel pier and the Tidewater trestle. Most of the captains and boatmen are those who are at the beach each summer, and are known to Wilmingtonians, as well as to hundreds of visitors from all over the country.

—Notice is given that the Civil Service Commission of the city will meet at the City Hall Monday night at 8 o'clock. At that time applicants for positions in the departments are asked to appear for examination, etc. The official notice is printed elsewhere in today's paper.

MRS. W. L. HILL ENTERTAINS; SOCIAL EVENTS AT WARSAW.

Warsaw, N. C., June 4.—Mrs. W. L. Hill was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Rook Club on Thursday afternoon from 4 till 6, at her home on Hill street. The parlors and library were beautifully decorated with masses of double poppies in various colors. There were six tables of Progressive Rook. Miss Sallie Hill, making the highest score, was given the first prize, a pack of rook cards; Miss Mattie Hines received the guest prize, a sealing set; and Miss Margaret Kennedy the consolation, a hand-painted blotter. A delicious ice course was served.

There was a literary programme by the Epworth League at the Methodist church on Thursday evening. It consisted of two papers: "The Religion of Childhood and Youth—How It May Be Conserved and Developed," by Mrs. J. C. Russ, and "How the Epworth League Conserves Church Life by Guiding Reading and Recreation Into Wholesome Channels," by Miss Annie K. Powell. There were two recitations by Misses Hulda Best and Carrie May Garner, and several songs by the choir. The exercises closed with a responsive reading service by Rev. A. O. Moore.

Mr. Warren Stuart, a missionary from Hangchow, China, and Mrs. Stuart are visiting relatives here and in other towns of Eastern Carolina. They will go to San Francisco in a few weeks, and will sail for China about July 1.

Messrs. Dudley Hill, John Pierce, Henry Stevens, John Fonvielle, and Julian Moore, students for the past year at Chapel Hill, have returned to spend the summer vacation with relatives.

Mayor and Mrs. S. A. Johnson, Mesdames D. E. Best, J. M. Pierce, J. H. Carter, Miss Anna Pierce, and Messrs. Jones R. Smith, C. J. Carr, Amos Johnson, G. G. Holland, J. P. Wilson and Wallace have returned from Richmond, where they attended the Confederate reunion.

MARRIAGE AT MOUNT OLIVE: MRS. SMITH ENTERTAINS

Mount Olive, N. C., June 4.—On Thursday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Chambers, this city, Miss Arabella M. Delamar and Mr. J. Watt Gray, formerly of Statesville, were quietly married in the presence of a few friends. Dr. Morton, of Rocky Mount, officiated. Miss Mildred Suggs, of Wilmington, and Miss Gray, of Statesville, were present at the marriage. Immediately following the performance of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the 9:06 p. m. northbound train for Rocky Mount, their future home.

Mrs. Colin Shaw Smith entertained the Merry Wives' club Thuesday. The scene was one of cheer, as the members, seated around the glowing fireside, chatted and sewed the hours away. Tall vases and bowls of roses and sweet peas adorned the attractive home; and when the refreshments were brought in, the plates were prettily garnishd with pink, matching in color the delicious strawberry ice cream served, and the little cakes which followed.

Mrs. Smith was assisted in her duties as hostess by her sisters, Mrs. G. F. Herring and Misses Jim, Rachel and Mabel Kornegay.

As favors, little scissors sharpeners were given. The gracious hospitality, the cheerful, happy atmosphere of the home, made the afternoon one of great pleasure.

BORDEN-CORBETT WEDDING AT WILSON A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Wilson, N. C., June 3.—Decidedly unique and beautiful was the wedding of Miss Annie May Corbett to Mr. Sydnor Jerman Borden, solemnized in the Wilson Methodist church Tuesday night, June 1. It was a "rainbow" wedding and the scheme of decoration added largely to the beauty of the scene.

Prior to the arrival of the wedding party Mr. Jack Stallings as soloist and Mr. Edward Stallings as violinist rendered a pleasing musical programme. Mrs. William Harriss was at the organ and the first notes of the wedding march announced the approach of the party as the clock struck nine.

Messrs. L. D. Knott, of Wilson, and Lloyd Wells, of Wilmington, led the party to the altar followed by Misses Grace Price, of Lexington, and Harriette Tilghman, of Wilson. Miss Price was gowned in pink and Miss Tilghman in lavender. The next two groomsmen followed, Messrs. Borden Cobb, of Goldsboro, and Brownwigg Dewey, of Wilmington, and after them Misses Eliza Bunn, of Tarboro, and Ella Hackney, of Wilson. Miss Bunn wore blue and Miss Hackney was gowned in yellow, the costumes of the bridesmaids corresponding in this manner to the hues of the rainbow. Each bridesmaid carried pink carnations with showers of sweet peas. The maid of honor, Miss Sue Corbett, sister of the bride, handsomely gowned in green and carrying American beauties, was followed by the beautiful little flower girls, Misses Mary Brewer, of Rocky Mount, and Harriet Smith, of Richmond, Va. The little ladies carried pink hats filled with roses and sweet peas.

The groom entered the church with his best man, Mr. Marvin Edmundson, and was followed to the altar by the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. J. A. Corbett.

Rev. M. Bradshaw, D. D., pastor of the church, officiated and received the vows of the two happy young people.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Corbett entertained in honor of the bridal party and a large number of friends were present.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Corbett, one of the attractive and cultured young women of Wilson, was beautiful, gowned in duchess satin, entrain, her veil caught with orange blossoms, carrying a bridal shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a diamond necklace.

The bride and groom left Wilson on the midnight northbound train for New York City and other points of interest and will return several weeks later to make their home in Wilson.

The groom, the son of Mrs. W. H. Borden, lived formerly in Goldsboro and located in Wilson four years ago and during this time has established a character for energy and business ability, with other sterling qualities, which has drawn a large number of friends to him.

In addition to members of the bridal party, a number of guests were present from various parts of the State and from Virginia.

DR. FRANK H. RUSSELL DEAD

Prominent Physician Fell on Sleep Early Last Evening—Had Been Ill for Some Time.

The death of no Wilmington physician could bring a greater degree of sorrow to a larger number of hearts than the passing of Dr. Frank Havens Russell, which occurred at half after eight o'clock last night at his home, No. 115 South Third street, following an immediate illness of two weeks, death having ensued as the result of a recurrent attack of some cerebral trouble which he first suffered some months ago while on a professional visit to Baltimore, Md., with a patient.

At the time of his first attack, it was thought that Dr. Russell could not live, though receiving the attention of the world's greatest specialists in a Baltimore hospital, but he showed wonderful recuperative powers and soon after his return to Wilmington, after recuperating a month at the home of his friend, Mr. W. B. Cooper, on the Sound, he was able to resume his practice in a limited way and hundreds of friends expressed the hope that as time wore on, he might regain his health permanently. He seemed to improve for a while, but two weeks ago, his condition began to grow worse and the end came last night rather suddenly, while members of his family, a devoted nurse and two physician friends, Dr. Chas. P. Bolles and Dr. Chas. T. Harper, were with him.

The news of his death will be received all over the city and elsewhere with the deepest sorrow. He enjoyed perhaps one of the very largest practices in the city and his acquaintanceship was large. Among all classes and conditions of men he enjoyed a confidence, a respect and an esteem that was vouchsafed to few men. Naturally retiring in his disposition, he did not strive to be popular nor to enjoy the wide friendship that was his, but those who knew him best were his warmest and most sincere friends. In his death the community loses one of its best citizens and most successful practitioners.

Dr. Russell was born May 6th, 1872, and had, therefore, just passed his 43rd year. His father is Mr. Thos. B. Russell, now of advanced years and living at Laurinburg, N. C., himself ill and unable to be in Wilmington on account of the death of his son. His mother was Miss Fannie B. Havens, of Washington, N. C., and his uncle being Mr. Jonathan Havens, a prominent citizen of the same place to whom he was especially devoted.

Dr. Russell was educated in the schools of Wilmington, and received his first medical education at the North Carolina Medical College at Davidson, N. C. Later he attended the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, completing his medical education at the University of Maryland, in Baltimore. Later he took extensive post graduate work at different times in New York and elsewhere. He was devoted to the science of medicine and its practice, losing no opportunity to ground himself thoroughly in all that made for the successful practitioner.

Early in his professional career, Dr. Russell married Miss Roberta Lilly, a daughter of the late Mr. Edmond Lilly and Mrs. Lilly, who passed away after a long residence in Wilmington a few years since. His wife and three children survive Dr. Russell, the children being Frank H., Jr., about 15 years of age, and little Misses Catherine and Jane Russell, all tenderly devoted to their father. There are also surviving two brothers, Lindsay Russell, Esq., a prominent lawyer of New York City, and Bryan Russell, of Quintaque, Tex., and one sister, Mrs. Frank Morse, of Washington, N. C. Those who are so deeply bereaved in the death of Dr. Russell have the profound sympathy of a host of friends in their sorrow.

Until members of the family who are out of the city can be heard from, no definite arrangements as to the funeral can be announced, but the services will probably be held some time tomorrow, the hour to be determined later.

Heaviest Rainfall "Since the Flood"

ABOUT 15 WATER MILLS AND PRACTICALLY ALL BRIDGES IN PORTION OF SAMPSON WASHED AWAY—CROPS.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., June 4.—Reports coming in today from the northern and western sections of Sampson county indicate the heaviest rainfall since the flood in these regions. Something like a cloudburst fell on Tuesday evening and submerged lands on which no water had ever before stood.

Nearly all the bridges, some 20-odd, spanning Big and Little Coharie rivers are gone. Some 15 water mills are washed away. In many places the plowed soil is entirely washed off the land and crops completely ruined. Fortunately the area covered is not large.

In the vicinity of Clinton and to the south and east there was no damaging rain.

Cattle and other stock are reported caught and drowned in the river swamps and lowlands along the Coharies. It is impossible at this time to estimate the damage done.

PLAY BY THE SUNBEAM CLUB

Enjoyable Event at Academy Last Night by Pupils of Miss Alderman's School.

To an audience that completely filled the Academy of Music, the Sunbeam Club, of Miss Alderman's School last evening presented as a benefit for the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. its annual entertainment, which events are always pleasurable and most delightful for all who attend. Last night's production was no exception and the pupils of the school acquitted themselves with unusual credti and the reflection of the highest praise upon those who had their training in charge.

The features of last night's entertainment consisted of the presentation of the little play, "Snow White and Seven Dwarfs," the characters being taken by pupils of the school. The event was heralded by attractive programmes, liberally filled with advertisements, credit for the solicitation of which are given especially to the prize winners, Misses Marion Summerell and Thelma Webster. There is also in the booklet the announcement of school distinctions for the term, the Excelsior medals having been won by Howard Green, Julius Canady, Elizabeth Shaw, Sybil Tremain, Genelie Green, Thomas McIntyre and Sallie Belle Canady.

An especial distinction was announced in the presentation of the Thomas Payne Bagley Memorial medal to Miss Lucille Kasehagen, for the highest mark in scholarship. This is a medal founded by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Bagley, of this city, in memory of their son, who passed away some years ago on the threshold of his young manhood, just after completing his education at Davidson College.

Those who received special mention for being present every day were Pearl Orrell, Kathrine Orrell, Julius Canady, George Quinn, Lucille Kasehagen, Billy Thrower, Mary E. Shaw and Sybil Tremaine.

The production of "Snow White" was by an "all-star" cast and the four scenes in the play carried one through a festival on the occasion of Snow White's sixth birthday; then Carl takes Snow White to the forest to kill her and Snow White has found refuge in the Dwarf's cottage and becomes the housekeeper, then as a beautiful finale the meeting with the Prince and the wedding.

The attendants of the forest children were Annie May Mills, Victoria Ruark, Rosa Orrell, Genette Dubois, Pearl Orrell, Swana Albright and Sallie Burrus. "Snow White" was most charmingly interpreted by Miss Marion Summerell, while the other leads were capably taken care of by Wm. Leftwich, as Carl, the Huntsman; Wm. Murphy, as the Prince; and Miss Neenah Woods, as the Queen.

Prof. George's orchestra, with Miss Eunice Tucker as accompanist, took care of the music incident to the play.

The dwarfs were impersonated in an altogether satisfactory manner by Winton Green, Edward Johnson, Geo. Quinn, Julius Canady, Joe Schraeder, Earl Capps and Harris Canady. The forest children were Misses Lucille Kashegan, Thelma Webster, Lillian Carpenter, Katherine Orrell, Madge Woods, Elsie Mills and Victoria Ruark. The Little Forest Children were Misses Sallie Bell Canady, Louise Cole, Genelle Green, Lila Long, Kathleen Green, Mary E. Shaw, Mildred Boylan, Eloise Adams and Sybil Tremaine.

The elves were no less dainty and bewitching in the persons of Horace Johnson, Thomas McIntyre, Billy Thrower, William Cole, Robert Carter, Leon Thrower, Joe Woods, Parker Howey and Clarence Woodcock.

The audience during the performance at all times demonstrated its delight by frequent applause and the entertainment was one of the most successful ever given by this talented club of one of Wilmington's best known schools.

ADVANCE IN COTTON LOST

Much Realizing at Ten Cents and Early Advance Overcome—Close at a Loss of Over Ten Points.

New York, June 4.—A further advance in cotton at today's opening carried the market about $2 per bale above the recent low level, but there was a good deal of realizing at 10 cents for October and prices later reacted, closing easy at a net loss of from 10 to 14 points for the day. Cables did not fully meet yesterday's local advance and the weather map made a more favorable showing but the market here opened 3 to 4 points higher on a renewal of yesterday's buying movement and the active months sold 5 to 8 points above last night's close during the early trading.

This advance was encouraged by a bullish view of the "Steel" case decision, but early buying seemed to exhause the more urgent demand from shorts, and prices soon turned easier. Bearish private crop reports from the Eastern belt promoted the selling late in the session and the close was at the lowest point of the day.

There seemed to be a feeling in local circles that the improvement of about 40 points from the low level of last week had weakened the technical position. This, in itself may have inspired some of the selling during the afternoon but the market appeared to be without any important support.

Cotton futures closed easy.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

A Steadier Tone Has Developed in Cotton Market During the Past Seven Days—Business Sales.

New York, May 4.—A steadier tone has developed in the cotton market during the past week, little or no improvement has been reported in the volume of general business, but local tarding has been more active than recently, and prices have advanced about $2 per bale from the recent low level. The firmer ruling of the stock market has made a favorable impression on sentiment. Local bull support has also been encouraged by complaints of excessive rainfall in Oklahoma and sections of the Eastern belt. Private reports of this sort were backed up to some extent by the weekly review of the Weather Bureau and since the receipt of private cables claiming that sales against diverted cotton in Liverpool has been completed the English market has shown a firmer tone with the increased demand for spot cotton.

These factors have doubtless contributed to the advancing tendency during the week, while the failure of the government crop report making the condition 80 per cen or a shade above the 10-year average, to inspire increased offerings of either spots or futures, was probably a disappointment to recent sellers. Much of the demand, consequently, has been attributed to covering of shorts, particularly by Wall street interests.

Local spot people have reported a very dull trade and the slack demand was reflected in the week's into-sight figures, which, for the first time, showed a falling off as compared with last year, but Southern spot markets have held generally steady and there has been little or no talk of hedge selling.

COURT DECISION EFFECTIVE

Stock Market Forgets All Other Matters in Decision in United States Steel Case.

New York, June 4.—For the first time in many weeks trading in stocks today was governed almost entirely by domestic developments. The so-called German situation, Mexico and all other foreign considerations lost their force or value, compared with the decision of the Federal Court absolving the United States Steel Corporation from all violations of the anti-trust laws.

Quite apart from its direct effect, the decision was regarded by influential financial and industrial interests as the most important in its general bearing upon big business of any similar event in years.

Harvester, American Can and Corn Products, all of which are under government quest, made early gains of 16, 6 and 3 1-2 points, respectively, and Distillers' securities rose almost 3 points. Numerous standard stocks, coppers, war specialties and miscellaneous industrials and utilities were up 2 to 5 points.

Profit-taking on a large scale followed the early rise, causing a substantial reduction of gains in all parts of the list, and completely wiping out the rise in Canadian Pacific, Erie and American Locomotive.

Copper issues were the feature of the bond market, with gains of 5 to 6 points. Total sales (par value) aggregated $2,825,000.

United States bonds unchanged on call.

BRADSTREET'S BUSINESS REVIEW.

Industrial Lines and War Orders Speeding Up—Distribution Revived.

New York, June 4.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow:

"Final distribution, checked in the East by unseasonable weather, has been revived in the West by sunshine and warmth; speeding up is the rule in the industrial lines, and war orders, taken on close to a cash basis, tax the capacity of many plants, spread activity to other lines, make for competitive bidding for skilled labor, hence unemployment is steadily decreasing. Crop news is favorable. The decision rendered Thursday denying dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation would receive greater attention but for international affairs. All-in-all, business for future delivery is growing steadily, though perhaps slowly, and at most places it is ahead of last year. Collections in the major part of the country are about fair, money is easy, road sales, especially in the interior, are increasing and mail order trade is much better than a year ago. Bank clearings $3,073,440,009, increase 2.3 per cent over last week.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Market Lost Early Advance and Became Soft During Afternoon Session.

New Orleans, June 4.—After an early advance today, cotton gradually fell off and in the afternoon the market became soft. The close was at the lowest of the day, a net loss of 9 to 14 points. Around the opening the trading months were 24 to 27 points up. Profit-taking by buyers of the early part of the week checked the upward movement, and brought about the reaction.

The market improved in sympathy with the rise yesterday in New York, the large spot trading in Liverpool and the report that the British government had disposed of all the cotton it had seized, the bulge in the tsock market and the talk concerning business in this country. Expectations of alrge mill takings for the week also stimulated buying.

Cotton closing: July, 9.18; October, 9.56; December, 9.74; January, 9.85; March 10.06.

Cpots steady; sales 1,575; to arrive 50; middling 9.13.

BEARS RULE IN WHEAT.

Increased Offerings of New Crop to Arrive from Indiana and Illinois.

Chicago, June 4.—Increased offerings of new crop shipments to arrive from Indiana and Illinois gave one advantage today to the bears in wheat. The market closed weak at ¾ to 2¼c under last night. Other leading staples, too, all showed a net decline—corn ⅝ to ⅞; oats ¼ to ⅝, and provisions 2½ to 12½.

Grain and provisions closing:

Wheat	July	1.16⅝	Sept.	1.12¾
Corn	July	73¼	Sept.	73⅛
Oats	July	47¼	Sept.	41⅛
Pork	July	18.00	Sept.	18.37
Lard	July	9.80	Sept.	10.05
Ribs	July	10.57	Sept.	10.67

Cash grain: Wheat. No. 2 red 1.32; No. 2 hard, nominal. Corn, No. 2 yellow 74½.

HAVE AMERICANS BEEN RECRUITED

Youths Alleged to Have Been Enlisted Illegally.

START INVESTIGATION

Consul General at London Cables State Department That at Least Fifteen Have Entered British Army in Viloation of Agreement.

Boston, Mass., June 4.—Alleged recruiting of American young men for the military forces of Great Britain is the subject of an investigation begun by Federal officials here today. According to a cablegram from the United States consul general at London, which was included in a message sent by Secretary Bryan at Congressman Peter F. Tague, of this city, at least 15 youths have been enlisted in violation of an agreement with the British Board of Trade regarding the United States shipping laws.

These and other cases are being inquired into, it is understood.

Secret service agents are co-operating with the United States district attorney on orders from Washington to learn if inducements have been offered American youths to ship on British vessels as caretakers for horses and cattle.

In the case of the 15 who left this port on the Leyland liner Cambrian on May 8 the consul general found that all had signed preliminary enlistment papers before his agent could board the steamer on its arrival in London. His cablegram to Secretary Bryan sent in connection with inquiries for Patrick Denehy, a boy of 15 years, said:

"On the arrival of the steamer Cambrian a recruiting sergeant was given opportunity to go aboard and enlisted Denehy and 14 others."

The consul general added that he was asking the British war department "for Denehy's immediate discharge, as contrary to the agreement with the board of trade covering compliance with the United States shipping laws which provide for the return of horse guards to ports of departure."

Since the outbreak of the European war several hundred young men have shipped out of this port on steamers used as horse transports by the remount division of the British army. Few have returned, according to information gathered by the Federal officers.

nizable neutral markings. The attack of four bombs was, of course, not aimed at any American ship.

"However, that the ship attacked was the American steamer Cushing is possible considering the time and place of the occurrence, nevertheless the German government accordingly requests of the American government that it communicate to the German government the material which was submitted for judgment in order that, with this as a basis, a further position can be taken in the matter.

"The undersigned leaves it to the ambassador to bring the foregoing to the immediate attention of his government, and takes this opportunity to renew to him the assurance of his most distinguished consideration."

SWEDISH STEAMER LAPLAND.

No Submarine Sighted But Believe Vessel Was Torpedoed.

London, June 4.—The Evening Standard says that the Swedish steamer Lapland was sunk last night 55 miles off Peterhead, a seaport of Eastern Scotland. No submarine was sighted, but Captain Petersen believes the vessel was torpedoed.

The crew of 19, together with four women, were landed at Peterhead today.

The Lappland was owned in Stockholm. Her net tonnage was 1,417.

copies of the questions used in the final examination in Spanish.

The seven are under arrest and have been recommended for dismissal.

The defense offered was that the youths did not know they were using stolen examination papers. It also was claimed that they were not given a fair trial.

It was stated the Secretary probably would make known his decision tomorrow.

MR. HENRY W. HOOD, SR., DEAD

Prominent Southport Merchant Passed Away Last Night.

Friends here, at his home town and throughout the eastern section of the State, will be deeply grieved to learn this morning of the death of Mr. Henry Warren Hood, Sr., one of the leading merchants of Southport, who passed away at the James Walker Memorial Hospital last night about 11 o'clock. Mr. Hood was 54 years and 7 months of age.

Mr. Hood had been ill for some time and had been at the hospital for something like a week. His condition had been considered grave, but it was thought that some improvement had been noted. His death last night was due to some heart trouble.

Mr. R. C. Hood, of Greensboro, a brother of the deceased, had been here during his brother's illness.

The remains were prepared last night for removal to Southport this morning.

The funeral will probably be held tomorrow.

DECISION IN STEEL CASE BOOSTS STOCKS

Undisguised Satisfaction in High Financial Circles.

Gains Recorded in Nearly All Stocks During Session, With Steel Common Leading—Slight Reaction Felt.

New York, June 4.—The decision of the Federal court favoring the United States Steel Corporation was received today with undisguised satisfaction in high financial quarters and by a sensational advance in stocks, more particularly the common shares of the Steel corporation.

The firs sale of steel comprised a block of 28,000 shares at 64 to 62, against yesterday's close of 59 3-8. Steel preferred, which is generally classed as an investment issue, rose almost three points, later extending its gain to within a fraction of 5 points.

Industrials and specialtiest like Harvester, American Can and Corn Products, which are defending suits brought by the government, rose to 3 to 16 points.

Sale of the first hour approximated 400,000 shares, Steel alone contributing 40 per cent.

The advance was met by heavy selling, mainly for profits, although the short interest was by no means inactive. The effect of this movement was sufficient to reduce all gains by midday, when the decline was arrested by fresh buying. Later, however, the temptation to take further profits proved irresistible, causing another lowering of quotations. Many of the more important gains were reduced to slender fractions and in some noteworthy instances they were altogether effaced.

Steel's net gain was reduced to 1 1-4 on sales of fully 250,000 shares, or one-quarter of the day's total operations.

FRAUDULENT USE OF MAILS CHARGE AGAINST SYRIANS.

Five Saleebies on Trial in Federal Court—Jury Divided.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—A mistrial, through inability of the jury to agree on a verdict, seems certain in the case of the five Syrians named Saleeby, charged with using the mails to defraud through ordering fruit and candy-making materials shipped to Tarboro, Farmville, Greenville and elsewhere in this State and to Jacksonville, Fla., and sending worthless checks in payment.

The case has been on trial in the Federal court two days. The jury took the case early in the afternoon and just before court adjourned reported to Judge Connor that they seemed hopelessly tied. The judge directed that they go to their homes for the night and return Saturday morning for further report.

Former Governor W. W. Kitchin made the principal speech to the jury in defense of the Syrians. The prosecution was directed by Assistant District Attorney Green, of Newbern.

The defendants are George, Nicholas, Norman and Arthur Saleeby and they are charged with having manipulated their alleged fraudulent scheme from Tarboro, Greenville, Farmville, Williamston and from Jacksonville, Fla., and other places. The charge is that they represented themselves as operators of candy itchens and fruit stores and ordered quantities of candy material and fruits, sending worthless checks, or checks on which payment was stopped when it was too late for the shippers to prevent the delivery of the goods to them.

U. S. STEEL CASE WILL GO TO SUPREME COURT

General today just before he started for the White House to attend a cabinet meeting.

It was said to be the unanimous opinion of administration officials that an appeal should be taken. The suit is considered one of the most important proceedings ever brought under the anti-trust law.

It is regarded as involving many of the questions at issue in the International Harvester Company case, which was decided in favor of the government in the lower court and now is before the Supreme Court of Appeals.

INTERNAL REVENUE SHOWS GRATIFYING DECREASE.

Collections in May Larger Than in April and in May 1914.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—The internal revenue collections for the Eastern Carolina district during the month of May amounted to $489,917, compared with $425,578 during May of 1914. The collections for April, 1915, were only $395,675, the collections for May just closed representing a substantial increase over April, 1915, and May, 1914. The special war taxes for the district collected during May aggregated $8,373.

Lists represented a revenue of $20,989 and the tobacco, cigar and cigarette taxes $459,988. Other receipts were from special taxes. The revenue from opium license and blanks amounted to $15,000.

ANOTHER CASE THROWN OUT.

Case of Alleged Fraud in Election in Raleigh Falls Flat.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—Another case growing out of the recent city election in which improper conduct by election officers was charged, was thrown out of court today. The Nicholas DeBoy case was dismissed yesterday and today the case against W. F. Smith for refusing to vote a man who had attained 21 years of age since registration closed, was given the same course. The case against Deputy United States Marshal Sturdivant, charging him with voting when he was really a non-resident, was continued because of the defendant being detained in the Federal court as an officer of the court.

Albany, N. Y., June 4.—Charles Seymour Whitman, Jr., the governor's baby, cried so loudly in the executive mansion here tonight that his father, who is in San Francisco, heard him. The governor listened to his baby over the telephone.

HEALTH OFFICERS TO MEET IN GREENSBORO

Annual State Gathering on Monday, June 14th.

Will Meet on Day Preceding Annual Convention of State Medical Society—Many Interesting and Valuable Features.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., June 4.—The fifth annual meeting of the State Health Officers' Association will be held in Greensboro Monday, June 14th, the day preceding the meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society. Dr. William M. Jones, Guilford county health officer, is president and Dr. W. S. Rankin, who is secretary of the State Board of Health, is also secretary of this association.

The program arranged for the meeting is full of subjects of importance for the many speakers, and these will be interesting to both physicians and laymen. There will be an address by Mayor Murphy, response by Dr. B. K. Hays, of Oxford, and the annual address of the president.

A symposium in school sanitation will be handled by Superintendent Thomas R. Foust, of the Guilford schools, and D. Charles T. Nesbitt, health officer of New Hanover county. Dr. John A. Ferrall, of New York, will discuss the "Rural Sewage Problem." "The Problem of Contagious Diseases" will be handled by Dr. M. T. Edgerton, Jr., health officer of Pitt county; Dr. George W. Shipp, of Catawba county; Dr. George M. Cooper, of the State Board of Health. Dr. M. W. Steele, assistant in rural sanitation, will speak on "The County Fight on Typhoid Fever," and Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of Greensboro, will talk about "Community Clean-Ups."

The evening session will have the following subjects and speakers: "The Sick Boy in the Family," Col. James H. Southgate, Durham; "Fighting the Great White Plague," Dr. H. F. Long, of Statesville; "What the State and You Can Do for the Consumptive," Dr. Thompson Frazier, of Asheville.

South Carolina, Georgia and Florida will co-operate with North Carolina in presenting a combined health exhibit of the several Southern states. Greensboro, Asheville and the State Board of Health will present health exhibits for the State.

The rooms of the Chamber of Commerce will be turned over to the association for these exhibits. This will give the doctors and health officers, as well as the public at large, an opportunity to see what North Carolina and other Southern states are doing in the way of health conservation and education.

The exhibit from Jacksonville, Fla., will be very interesting as it relates to various phases of the drug habit, such as morphine, cocaine and heron. This goes very nicely with one part of the program for the Medical Society meeting, which will be published in a few days. Another feature of the Florida exhibit is that relating to midwives, visiting nurses and child welfare.

The Georgia exhibit relates especially to the hookworm disease, while that of South Carolina deals with the milk problem. Asheville has a very unique exhibit on flies. Greensboro will show simplified home methods of sanitation and care for babies. The State Board of Health exhibit deals with patent medicines, tuberculosis and child hygiene.

Washington within the next few days probably on Monday or Tuesday.

As the note has been read more and more by Carranza officials and the cabinet, it has created a feeling that President Wilson intends no harsh action toward Mexico.

A distinct feeling prevails that a more definite attitude of Washington will result in hastening a solution of the Mexican problem without foreign aid. How this is to be done nobody professes to know, except General Carranza himself, and he expresses the opinion that his intended re-occupation of Mexico City soon will place the Constitutionalists in a better position to be recognized by Washington.

Caused a Surprise.

That General Carranza intends to reply to President Wilson caused some surprise, as it at first was felt that the warning did not invite a reply. However, when Mr. Silliman called today he was informed that a reply was being formualted by Jesus Uruta, Constitutionalist foreign minister. It was stated that the tones of the reply would be appreciative, friendly and serene. Of what General Carranza found in the note as a basis for his encouragement was not stated, but it was learned that he intends to interpret the warning as a tacit hint that he is the man best fitted to assume ascendancy in Mexico and most likely to receive recognition once the Constitutionalists return to Mexico City.

It is understood that the reply will point out a steady progress by the Constitutionalists, indicating an early victory over Villa. Also General Carranza will point out that American recognition would greatly expedite peace in Mexico.

Other points in the reply will be first, that General Carranza appreciates the kindly sentiments for the Mexican people as expressed by President Wilson; second, that President Wilson always has been regarded as champion of the down trodden people, and therefore, those struggling for democracy in Mexico look to his friendship for aid; third, that the Constitutionalists, already had undertaken pacification by uniting all factions, but their efforts had failed because of the ambitions of Villa, who was backed by the Cientifico party, and fourth that General Carranza considers the outlook bright because convinced he will be able soon to reoccupy Mexico City and reopen traffic, confining Villa to restricted sections of the nort huntil the country is rid of him.

Mr. Silliman received word today from Mexico City that Americans and other foreigners probably would leave there next week for Vera Cruz.

Baltimore, June 4.—Rev. Timothy T. Bresnahan, professor of ethics and political economy at Loyola college, here, author of several books and one of the leading philosophers of the Jesuit Order, died today. He was a former president of Boston college.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE FOR COMMENCEMENT AT TRINITY

Exercises Begin With Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday Evening.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., June 4—Preparations are completed for the 56th annual commencement at Trinity College from June 6 to 9. The exercises begin Sunday evening with the baccalaureate address and close the following Wednesday evening with the annual reception to the graduating class.

The baccalaureate address will be given by Dr. Franklin N. Parker, Avera professor of Biblical literature in Trinity college, which chair he has held four years. The recent election of Dr. Parker to the chair of systematic etheology in Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., takes from Trinity one of her most popular and efficient professors and from the State one of the most powerful and effective lecturers to be found in all Southern Methodism.

At the service Sunday evening the musical programme will be in charge of Mr. T. Edgar Cheek, of Durham.

The commencement sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. James Wideman Lee, of St. Louis, a preacher and a lecturer of national reputation. Dr. Lee has served the foremost churches of the Southern Methodist church; and, besides being a preacher of great power and ability, he is also an author of considerable note.

Owen Wister, pronounced by some the foremost man of letters in America today, comes this year to deliver the annual commencement address on Wednesday, June 9. Mr. Wister is well known as a writer and novelist. Moreover, he has kept in touch with American Academic life, and on a number of occasions has delivered addresses at foremost American universities. He has not spoken in the Southern States before, and his coming to Trinity next week will be a distinct literary event of the year.

Equally attractive and interesting, in view of present conditions, is the subject, "Germany's Dual Personality," the theme of Mr. Wister's address.

The alumni meeting Tuesday afternoon, June 8, shows promise of being the largest ever held here. The annual dinner will be served in the Angier Duke gymnasium, and the address will be delivered by Mr. B. S. Womble, '04, of Winston-Salem.

DRAW LIGHT FROM GERMANS.

To See What Time is is at Night—Fire on Them.

(Correspondence of Associated Press.)

Paris, May 29.—A reservist writes from the trenches, telling how light is drawn from the Germans when a soldier wants to see what time it is at night, and has no match.

"What time is it?" asked a young recruit of the class of 1914, at his listening post in the advanced trenches. No one had a match, and it was too dark to make out the time.

"'If you want a light,' said a territorial who had passed the winter in the trenches, 'you have only to open a sharp fire on the trenches yonder.'

"The sluggestion was acted on and after a few shots in quick succession a star seemed to open out in the sky overhead. Fearing a surprise attack, the Germans had sent up a fuse to light the position.

"'Now you can see your watch,' said the territorial, 'but don't try the ruse too often.'"

RETURN TO REPUBLICAN FOLD.

Officers of Indiana Progressive Committee Resign.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4.—At the conclusion of a meeting of the Progressive State Central Committee here today Edward C. Toner, chairman, and Paul J. Haines, secretary, proferred their resignations and announced that henceforth they would affiliate with the Republican party.

The committee was in session all afternoon and the advisability of dissolving the progressive party in the State, by a vote of the committee, was discussed. Toner proposed a resolution that the party disband, urging that the progressive movement could be carried forward in the Republican party. The resolution was rejected, however.

5 CAR LOADS LAND PLASTER

This should be used on Peanuts. If you will put from 400 to 600 lbs. per acre, we think the Peanuts would be increased in weight from 20 to 25 per cent. But if it only increased them ten per cent., then it would pay well to use it. No Peanuts should be tended without applying Land Plaster on them.
